NOTICE OF FILING

TO THE OBLIGOR NAMED ABOVE:

You are hereby notified that the above Verified Statement And Notice Of Lien For Delinquent Child Support has been filed in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court in the county named above.

A lien for delinquent child support, in the amount shown in the Verified Statement, may be docketed against real and personal property that you own and enforced by execution in the same manner as for a civil judgment.

You may contest the validity of this lien by requesting a hearing before a district court judge within thirty (30) days from the date you are served with this Notice.

If you fail to request a hearing within thirty (30) days, the obligee may request the Clerk of Superior Court to record and index the lien on the judgment docket and to issue a transcript of the docketed lien to other counties in which you may own property.

If the lien for delinquent child support is docketed against your property, it may be discharged if you deposit with the Clerk of Superior Court money equal to the amount of the lien and request a district court judge to determine the validity of the lien, if the obligee files with the Clerk of Superior Court an acknowledgment that you have satisfied the full amount of the lien, or if the obligee's action is dismissed or judgment is entered against the obligee.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CLERK

Do not docket this lien as a judgment against the obligor until (1) the Court enters an order confirming the lien and ordering that it be docketed as a judgment, or (2) the obligor fails to request a hearing to contest the lien within the time allowed by law and the obligee requests that the lien be docketed as a judgment.
