IV. FINDINGS OF FACT AND JUDGMENT

After written notice to the indigent named on the reverse or service of a summons, and opportunity to be heard, the Court finds that the adult named on the reverse has previously been adjudged to be indigent; that he/she requested and has been provided counsel and other necessary expenses of representation; and that the applicant named on the reverse provided services and incurred expenses of which the money value is that stated in Section III above. NOTE: To enter judgment against indigent, check "Judgment Against Indigent" below and sign Section V.

NOTE: The trial court may not enter judgment for an amount greater than the Total amount in Section III above.

(Judgment Against Indigent) The Court further finds that an order has been entered adjudicating the juvenile to be abused, neglected, or dependent, that an order has been entered terminating the parental rights of one or both of the juvenile's parents, and all of the matters raised on appeal have not been vacated, reversed, or remanded. If the juvenile has been adjudicated abused, neglected, or dependent or parental rights have been terminated, the Court further finds that the respondent is financially able to pay the fees and expenses set out on the reverse and should therefore be held responsible for reimbursing the State for the same. Based on all of the above findings, it is ORDERED that the State of North Carolina recover from the indigent the total amount in Section II stated above on line 3, together with interest at the legal rate from the date the judgment is docketed until paid.
