RULE 1: GENERAL RULES

1.1 Purpose and Construction. The purpose of these local Family Court Rules [“Rules”] is to provide for the fair, just, and prompt resolution of domestic cases in Wake County. In the event and to the extent there is a conflict between these Rules and established North Carolina law (e.g., Rules of Civil Procedure, Rules of Evidence, North Carolina General Statutes, and case law) the presiding Judge shall resolve the conflict. It is recognized these Rules will not be complete in every detail and will not cover every situation which may arise. In the event these Rules fail to address a specific situation which may arise, they should be construed to avoid unnecessary delay, to promote professional courtesy, and to promote the ends of justice.

These Rules and all amendments thereto shall be filed with the Clerk of Superior Court of Wake County [“Clerk”] and may be cited accordingly as the Tenth Judicial District Family Court Rules for Domestic Court. Except as specified herein, these Rules supersede and replace all previous local rules controlling actions in Domestic Court. The effective date of these Rules is April 1, 2025. The revised Rules apply to cases filed on or after the effective date of these Rules. For cases pending before the effective date, the presiding Judge shall decide in his or her discretion the applicability of the revised Rules should a controversy arise.

1.2 Self-Represented or Pro Se Litigants/Ex Parte Communications. Parties without attorneys are known as self-represented or pro se litigants. Although no party is required to have an attorney, any party who is not represented by an attorney must follow all Court rules and is presumed to know and understand them. All pro se litigants must keep the Clerk properly informed of any and all changes to their contact information, including their physical address(es), mailing address(es), email address(es), and telephone number(s). If a party moves before his/her case is completed and fails to properly inform the Clerk of their new or updated contact information, this will not be grounds to continue the case if notices are not received. Pro se litigants, like attorneys, may not have, or attempt to have, ex parte communication with the Judge assigned to their case. Ex parte communication is any method of communication between a litigant and the Court or an attorney and the Court without all parties being present. The assigned Judge will not return telephone calls, listen to recorded telephone messages, or read mail which is deemed inappropriate ex parte communication. The assigned Judge will not open mail which does not contain the name and return address of the sender. Violations of the ex parte communication rule may, in the discretion of the assigned Judge, subject the offending party to sanctions.

1.3 Time Standards for Domestic Cases. The North Carolina Family Court Advisory Committee [“NCFCAC”] has established a case management plan to aid in the just, fair, and timely resolution of cases filed. Time Standards by definition are benchmark events in the life of the case that provide for effective and efficient case management and resolution. While it is not possible to conclude all family cases within these time standards, striving to meet these goals is important since families need closure. The time frames below represent “goals” as established by the NCFCAC.

(a) Child Custody

Temporary Orders Entered

1.4 Responsibilities of Attorneys.

- a) Contact Information. Attorneys must keep the Wake County Family Court Office [“FCO”] informed of any and all changes in their mailing addresses, e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, and fax numbers.
- b) Secured Leave Policy. Pursuant to Rule 26 of the North Carolina General Rules of Practice for Superior and District Courts [“N.C. R. Super. & Dist. Cts.”], any attorney may from time to time designate and enjoy one or more secure leave periods each year as provided herein. The following procedure supplements N.C. R. Super. & Dist. Cts., Rule 26 requirements for attorneys appearing in cases pending in the Domestic Courts of Wake County District Court:
 - (1) The Notice of Secure Leave required to be submitted to the Court by N.C. R. Super. & Dist. Cts, Rule 26 must also be submitted to the FCO at the following mailing address or may be submitted via facsimile at the following telephone number:

Wake County Family Court
Attn: Secured Leave
P.O. Box 351
Raleigh, NC 27602

Fax: (919) 792-4876
 - (2) As provided in Rule 26 of the North Carolina Rules of Practice for Superior and District Courts, a “secure-leave period” is one complete calendar week that is designated by an attorney during which the superior and the district courts may not hold a proceeding in any case in which that attorney is an attorney of record. An attorney is entitled to enjoy three different secure-leave periods for any purpose. A secure-leave period that spans across calendar years counts against the attorney's allowance for the first calendar year. Within the twenty-four weeks after the birth or adoption of an attorney's child, that attorney may enjoy twelve additional secure-leave periods for the purpose of caring for the child.

- (3) A Notice of Secured Leave is not filed with the Clerk and should not contain a file name or caption number. The notice must be filed at least ninety (90) days before the secure leave period begins.
- (4) Except in the case of the birth or adoption of an attorney's child, designation of secure-leave time does not apply if a trial or other matter has already been set on a Domestic Calendar.
- (5) The policy and procedures described herein are not exclusive. In extraordinary circumstances the time limitations for notification of designated weeks may be waived by the court when attorneys have been faced with particular or unusual situations. Furthermore, attorneys shall be able to make other requests to be excused from appearing before the court for personal and professional reasons.

1.5 Use of Forms. Local forms for use by counsel/pro se litigants in accordance with these Rules are subject to change as legislation and/or policy dictates. Except as specified herein, where local forms are specified to be used by these Rules, counsel or pro se litigants may use either the form provided or a form of their own that substantially corresponds to the specified local form and contains the same information. If a Rule specifies use of a form prepared by the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts ["AOC"], the AOC form must be used. The AOC website is:

<https://www.nccourts.gov/locations/wake-county/wake-county-local-rules-and-forms>.

1.6 Location of Local Rules. These Rules shall be maintained by the Family Court Administrator or the Administrator's designee. These Rules and applicable forms cited herein are available on the AOC website at <https://www.nccourts.gov/locations/wake-county/wake-county-local-rules-and-forms>.

1.7 Definition of "Days" as used herein. Rule 6 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply in computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these Rules.

RULE 2: DOMESTIC FAMILY COURT CASE FILINGS; ASSIGNMENT TO DISTRICT COURT JUDGES

2.1 Domestic Family Court Actions. All domestic complaints, counterclaims, and subsequent motions shall be initiated by appropriate filing with the Clerk. A complaint for breach of contract or rescission involving an unincorporated property settlement or separation agreement shall not be considered a “domestic complaint” for the purpose of these Rules unless the pleading asserting such a claim(s) also includes a claim(s) brought pursuant to Chapter 50 other than a claim for an absolute divorce.

All domestic complaints and counterclaims, except IV-D, U.R.E.S.A. and U.I.F.S.A. child support cases, and domestic violence (pursuant to Chapter 50B) cases, shall be accompanied by a Domestic Civil Action Cover Sheet (AOC-CV-750). The Cover Sheet shall contain the names and addresses of both parties and it shall indicate whether the pleading includes a demand for jury trial. This requirement may be satisfied by filing a copy of the Cover Sheet with the Clerk. At the time of initial filing, the Clerk shall assign a case number and place the number upon the summons. All subsequent pleadings and papers filed with the Clerk and all subsequent communications to opposing counsel or parties or Court personnel shall reference the proper case number as initially assigned by the Clerk. Any Complaint or pleading asserting a counterclaim(s) which is not accompanied by a properly executed Cover Sheet is subject to appropriate sanctions.

2.1 (a) Filing by electronic means. Any reference to filing in these Local Rules shall include electronic filing (or, in the case of self-represented litigants, filing by mail or at a courthouse facility)¹. All filings for any claim(s) and/or relief sought shall be as permitted by the Supreme Court and made available by the AOC in Wake County, and in accordance with Rule 5 of the General Rules of Practice. Attorneys are required to register and file papers through the electronic system. A self-represented or pro se litigant shall register to participate in electronic filing by registering with the electronic filing system or, in the alternative, may personally visit the Wake County Courthouse or Wake County Justice Center to enlist a Clerk’s representative for assistance in filing or may submit such desired filing(s) by mail to the Clerk’s office.

2.2 Required Cover Sheets. When a Complaint is filed, the filing party shall complete the following:

- (a) Domestic Civil Action Cover Sheet. A Domestic Civil Action Cover Sheet (AOC-CV-750) shall be filed with the initial filing and any subsequent filing containing a Counterclaim or Motion asserting a new claim of the party. The cover sheet shall contain the address of the moving party and/or the attorney for the moving party and the address of the opposing party. The appropriate box on the cover sheet indicating which claim(s) the party is filing for shall be “checked.”
- (b) Notice of Emergency and/or Temporary Hearing. If an emergency and/or temporary hearing is scheduled pursuant to these Rules at the time of filing of the pleading, a copy of the Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-01) shall be included in the order or served contemporaneously with each Complaint or Motion.
- (c) Custody Mediation Cover Sheet. If the filing includes a claim for child custody, a motion for order to show cause or a motion for contempt involving violations of a custody order, a Custody Mediation Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-06) shall be attached.
- (d) Ex Parte Emergency Custody Information Sheet. If the filing includes a claim or motion for entry of an ex parte emergency custody order, an Ex Parte Emergency Custody Information Sheet (WAKE-DOM-30) shall be filed with the motion for ex parte emergency custody order. Note that Rule 5.3(a) applies to requests for Ex Parte Emergency Custody. Refer to Rule 5.3(a) for Notice requirements applicable to request for entry of Ex Parte Emergency Orders.

2.3 Judicial Assignment. All new domestic matters (either a new complaint or new matters in an existing case where a Judge has not been previously assigned, or a counterclaim in which a Judge has been assigned), shall be accompanied by an Affidavit for Judicial Assignment and Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-02). This form shall indicate whether there is a pending or resolved domestic case involving the same parties in this or any other state. Incomplete affidavits may result in a case not being promptly assigned to a Judge or in undue delay in calendaring or hearing of the case. The FCO shall assign the case to a District Court Judge who is currently assigned to preside over domestic cases. Assignment of Judges shall be on a random basis and shall be accomplished without influence from parties, their attorneys or the Judges; however, the Chief District Court Judge may make judicial assignments in his or her discretion for good cause. All judicial assignments or reassignments shall be reflected in the individual case file. The moving party shall also ensure proper service and notice of the completed Affidavit for Judicial Assignment and Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-02) is effectuated on the opposing party.

All subsequent Motions and hearings shall be set before the assigned Judge. See Rule 3 for the calendaring of domestic matters.

Once a Judge has been assigned to a case, he/she shall remain the assigned Judge for all future hearings unless the Judge is no longer available for Domestic Court, the Judge recuses himself/herself, or a Request for Reassignment (WAKE-DOM-03) is filed and approved pursuant to Rule 2.5 herein.

The Family Court Staff shall assign cases on a random basis so as to attempt to ensure all Judges serving in Domestic Court have an equal caseload. The Family Court Administrator shall periodically review the ongoing status of the caseloads.

2.4 Matters Not Subject to Judicial Assignment. Cases which shall NOT be assigned to a Domestic Family Court Judge include the following:

- (a) Uncontested Absolute Divorce Cases. In a case in which only an absolute divorce is sought or cases in which the only claims are for an absolute divorce and entry of a Domestic Relations Order [“DRO”], the Family Court Staff shall not assign a Judge unless and until an Answer and/or Counterclaim or Motion in the Cause is filed asserting claims for which judicial assignment is appropriate. Other claims or defenses for which judicial assignment is appropriate shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to:
 - (1) A claim or defense contesting the moving party’s right to entry of a Judgment for Absolute Divorce;
 - (2) A claim or defense contesting the moving party’s right to entry of the DRO;
 - (3) A case in which either party asserts a claim or request for annulment;
 - (4) A case in which either party requests incorporation of a separation agreement;
 - (5) A case in which either party asserts any claim or defense for which judicial assignment is required under Rule 2.3; and
 - (6) A request for post-judgment relief.

If a divorce is uncontested and not subject to judicial assignment, it shall be scheduled through the Clerk’s office using the proper notice of hearing, currently WAKE-DOM-23B. If the divorce action contains other claims or defenses requiring judicial assignment, it shall be the responsibility of the party asserting these other claims or defenses to file the Affidavit for Judicial Assignment and Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-02) at the time the claims or defenses are filed.

- (b) Consent Domestic Relations Order. A complaint or motion in the cause requesting a Qualified Domestic Relations Order [“QDRO”] or the entry of a Consent Domestic Relations Order or seeking Equitable Distribution solely for the purpose of entry of a Consent DRO or QDRO shall not be assigned to a Judge and may be heard by any District Court Judge assigned to Domestic Court or the presiding judge if the consent QDRO is tendered to the Judge at the time the divorce is granted. However, if the Consent Order is an “Amended” Order, then the Amended Consent Order must be submitted to the Judge who signed the original Consent Order unless that Judge is no longer available.
- (c) Child Support Cases. All cases in which child support is being established or enforced through Wake County Child Support Enforcement (IV-D) shall be assigned to the specialized Child Support Court (presently Courtroom 5D). See Rule 6.1 below.
- (d) Domestic Violence Civil Court. Except as outlined herein or in the case of extraordinary circumstances, no judicial assignment shall be made in domestic violence matters. In the event a Chapter 50 action exists involving the parties in the domestic violence action, there should already be an assigned Judge (see Rule 18).
- (e) Juvenile Court Cases. Juvenile Court actions include delinquency, undisciplined children, abuse, neglect, dependency, termination of parental rights, and emancipations. All actions to terminate parental rights are special proceedings and shall be heard in Juvenile Court unless, for good cause, a termination of parental rights case is assigned to a domestic Family Court Judge. All juvenile actions shall be governed by the Tenth Judicial District Family Court Rules for Juvenile Abuse/Neglect/Dependency or the Tenth Judicial District Family Court Rules Juvenile Delinquency & Undisciplined Proceedings.
- (f) Criminal Cases. Criminal cases involving the same parties to a Domestic Court action shall be tried in Criminal Court.
- (g) Contract Related Claims. Pleadings asserting claims relating to a breach or rescission of an unincorporated property settlement agreement or separation agreement shall be scheduled through the Trial Court Administrator’s office and shall be tried in Civil Court unless the pleading asserting such a claim(s) also includes a claim(s) brought pursuant to Chapter 50 other than a claim for an absolute divorce. In that event, the scheduling of the contract related claims will be in accordance with these Rules.

2.5 Judicial Recusal/Reassignment. Should a Judge recuse himself/herself from a case, there shall be an order signed to that effect and placed in the file and the case shall be reassigned immediately to another Judge by the Family Court Administrator. A Request for Reassignment (WAKE-DOM-03A) shall be ruled upon by the Chief District Court Judge and granted only for good cause. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to, conflict of interest as defined by the Code of Judicial Conduct, previous recusal prior to the institution of the Rules, or recusal by the Judge on his/her own motion. The Family Court Administrator shall monitor the number of cases assigned to each Judge. If a case is reassigned pursuant to this Rule (WAKE-DOM-03A), the FCO will issue a new judicial assignment and immediately notify the parties and/or their attorneys of the new assigned Judge.

2.6 Emergency Matters Arising Prior to Judicial Assignment. All requests for emergency orders or temporary restraining orders [“TRO”] which require a 10-day return hearing (excluding domestic violence protective orders pursuant to Chapter 50B) shall be scheduled before a Judge who will be presiding in Domestic Court on the day of the 10-day return hearing pursuant to Rule 5.3 herein. In all such cases, there must be an order entered allowing or denying the request. When possible, the Judge conducting the 10-day return hearing shall be the assigned Judge.

When a temporary restraining order is requested prior to the permanent assignment of a Judge, the moving party shall immediately request the assignment of a Judge on an Affidavit for Judicial Assignment and Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-02) who shall then be the assigned Judge for the case.

2.7 Emergency Matters Arising After Judicial Assignment. The assigned Judge may elect to hear emergency matters arising after the initial filing of the case out of session regardless of the Courtroom to which the Judge is assigned at that time. If the Judge assigned to the case is not available to hear ex parte or other emergency matters, the ex parte or other emergency matters may be heard by any other domestic family court judge or other judge designated by the Chief District Court Judge to hear emergency matters.

RULE 3: CALENDARING OF DOMESTIC MATTERS

3.1 Calendaring Matters. The Wake County Family Court Calendar [“Calendar”] is available online at <https://wcfcc.com>. The Calendar provides attorneys and pro se litigants immediate access to the calendars for each judge presiding in domestic court. Pro se litigants and attorneys are expected to use the Calendar to determine available dates for a hearing.

Once the attorney or pro se litigant has selected a date for a hearing, he or she shall file the chosen date on the appropriate Calendar Request (WAKE-DOM-04) form. If the chosen date has not been closed (see below), the Family Court Case Coordinator [“FCCC”] shall tentatively set the matter on the Calendar on the requested date. Prior to submitting a calendar request, the attorney or pro se litigant shall communicate with the opposing attorney or pro se litigant about the date to be requested. The case priority on the Calendar shall be deemed set upon the making of a reservation so long as the setting is timely confirmed with the FCCC.

A date is deemed “closed” when it reaches the maximum number of hours established by the assigned Judge or if the presiding Judge is unavailable on that date. If a party desires to set a matter on a date that is closed, the FCCC shall consult with the assigned Judge to determine whether to allow that matter to be scheduled as requested.

3.2 Calendar Request. A Calendar Request (WAKE-DOM-04) shall be completed and filed. Requests must be completely filled out with all required information. Parties/attorneys shall not modify the Calendar Request template but may add information to the standard form if necessary. Service of the completed Calendar Request (WAKE-DOM-04) on the opposing party shall be made pursuant to Rule 5 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. The Calendar Request shall not serve as notice of hearing. If the parties are unable to agree on the Court date or if the opposing party does not respond, the party seeking to calendar the matter may request the FCCC calendar the matter in accordance with these Rules.

3.3. Scheduling Hearing Length. In requesting a hearing date, attorneys or pro se litigants shall provide to the FCCC the following information: the type of hearing(s) and the anticipated length of trial. At any time after a case has been scheduled for hearing, if there are any changes in the original time estimate or if either party wishes to schedule additional matters for hearing at the same court setting, the party seeking additional time or seeking to add matters to the calendar must contact the assigned FCCC via email at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing. If the assigned Judge approves the request, the FCCC will notify both parties and will add those matters to the Calendar and/or adjust the anticipated time required. In any event, timely notice of the change must be provided to the opposing party (pro se litigant or attorney).

3.4 Notice of Hearing. The Courtroom location, date, time and matters to be heard shall be cited in the Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-01). The moving party shall file the Notice with the Clerk and also serve the Notice of Hearing on the opposing party pursuant to Rule 5 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

3.5 Removing Hearings from the Calendar. Once calendared, a case may be removed by the attorney/pro se litigant who scheduled the matter for hearing, by mutual consent of counsel and/or pro se litigants or by an order of continuance signed by the assigned Judge.

However, if the hearing to be removed is one that is listed in Rule 1.3 or Rule 11.15 herein, then the hearing may be removed only by order of continuance signed by the assigned Judge or in accordance with Rule 16 herein. Removal from the calendar by mutual consent of the attorneys/pro se litigants shall be done by way of a Stipulation of Continuance signed by both parties and/or their attorneys of record. A copy of the filed Stipulation shall immediately be delivered to the assigned FCCC at the time of filing. If the matter is removed by mutual consent of counsel and/or pro se litigants or by the attorney/pro se litigant who scheduled the matter for hearing, unless there is an order of continuance, then Rule 3 herein governs the re-calendaring of this matter.

3.6 Double Calendaring Cases. No claim within a case shall be calendared on more than one date simultaneously. A claim within a case must be properly removed or continued before being re-calendared.

3.7 Jury Trials. When calendaring a case in which there has been a demand for a jury trial, the Calendar Request must specifically include this information. Before scheduling a case in which a jury trial has been demanded, the assigned FCCC shall consult with the assigned Judge to assure that the matter is calendared in the appropriate courtroom. Calendar Requests for hearings in which a jury trial has been demanded must be submitted to the assigned FCCC at least ninety (90) days in advance of the requested date.

RULE 4: TRIAL CALENDAR

4.1 Overflow Courtroom. This courtroom, currently located in Courtroom 2A, shall serve as an overflow courtroom for all domestic judges and secondarily for civil domestic violence cases [“Overflow Courtroom”]. All assigned Judges will call their calendar at 9:00 a.m. and promptly send appropriate matters over to the Overflow Courtroom. Appropriate matters include, but are not limited to, temporary and non-dispositive matters such as claims for temporary child custody, appointment of a Parenting Coordinator, pre-trial Motions, contempt, and preliminary discovery matters. Only the assigned judge may decide which cases are sent to the Overflow Courtroom. The Lead Family Court Judge will designate a priority schedule for assigned Judges. The overflow judge shall triage the cases received, in accordance with the priority schedule. The overflow judge shall be free to manage the order in which cases are heard, to sign consent orders, and to send cases back to the original courtroom which cannot be reached. If there are no domestic cases to be heard, the overflow judge will assist the judge assigned to handle civil domestic violence matters.²

4.2 Courtroom 2B. Cases set in Courtroom 2B shall be limited to three (3) hours or less; however, the FCCC, in consultation with the assigned Judge, may alter this limit for good cause. Cases shall be set on a specific date. Calendar call for 2B cases shall be at 9:00 a.m. each morning for cases set on that day.

4.3 Courtroom 2C and 2D. These Courtrooms shall operate on two-week sessions.

4.4. Courtroom 9C. Uncontested Divorces are heard in a courtroom designated by the Chief District Court Judge, currently Courtroom 9C. Summary Judgment motions and uncontested trials may be heard at different times and in different courtrooms. Uncontested divorces must be scheduled through the Clerk's office using WAKE DOM forms (currently WAKE-DOM-23B and 23C). This form must be filed by Wednesday of the week prior to the requested hearing date.

4.5 Calendar Call for 2nd Floor Cases. Calendar call for 2nd floor cases shall be at 9:00 a.m. each morning for cases set on the calendar that day (except for calendar call in Courtroom 2A, which shall be conducted promptly after all assigned Judges refer the cases to Courtroom 2A in accordance with these Rules). It shall be the responsibility of each attorney in a case to proactively keep the FCCC informed of any changes in the status of the case which would affect the Calendar. It shall also be the responsibility of each attorney to proactively confer with other attorneys with cases scheduled for the same date to determine any changes which may affect the Calendar. The online calendar can be viewed online at <https://wcfcc.com> .

4.6 Appearance at Calendar Call by Counsel or Pro Se Litigant Required. Unless excused by the assigned Judge, counsel or pro se litigants who have a case appearing on a Domestic Calendar are required to be present at calendar call. Attorneys may have a partner, associate attorney, or another attorney familiar with the case present on his or her behalf. For purpose of these Rules, appearance at calendar call may be made via WebEx at www.WebEx.com. All attorneys and parties may appear for calendar call virtually except for cases which are first, second, or third on the updated calendar – attorneys and litigants appearing first, second, or third on the updated calendar are expected to appear in person to avoid wasting court time and judicial resources. Attorneys and litigants who are first, second, or third on the updated calendar who are not present may have their designated trial time reduced by the Judge, started by the Judge whenever the Judge in his/her discretion calls the matter for trial (regardless of who is/is not present), or some other action deemed appropriate by the Judge. The online calendar, and applicable WebEx meeting ID numbers for each Domestic Courtroom may be found at <https://wcfcc.com>. Attendance at calendar call is not required when a case has been properly removed from the calendar and notice of the removal given to the FCCC (those situations may include, but are not limited to, continuance order, notice of voluntary dismissal, or entry of a consent order or memorandum of judgment). See Rule 16 below for the procedure to follow if a matter settles prior to trial.

² Rule 4.1 shall be in effect as long as an Overflow Courtroom continues to be made available to Domestic Court. In the event this Overflow Courtroom ceases to function, so shall this Rule 4.1 cease to apply; except, however, in the event an Overflow Courtroom is subsequently reinstated in the future, Rule 4.1 shall revive and be immediately applicable regardless of any change in specific courtroom designation.

4.7 Appearance at Trial by Counsel or Pro Se Litigant Required. Any case noticed for hearing is subject to dismissal for failure to prosecute, when appropriate, if – at the time the case is called for hearing – the attorneys or pro se litigants are not present or ready to proceed and have failed to notify the Court of any emergency or conflict which would preclude the attorney or party from attending.

RULE 5: MOTIONS, PRETRIAL CONFERENCES AND EMERGENCY HEARINGS

5.1 Motions.

- (a) Motion for Order to Show Cause and Motion for Contempt. All Motions for Order to Show Cause and Motions for Contempt (WAKE-DOM-05A) shall be filed with the Clerk and must include a copy of the order which is alleged to have been violated. The Motion for Order to Show Cause and Motion for Contempt shall be submitted by the moving party, along with the Order to Appear and Show Cause (WAKE-DOM-05A and WAKE-DOM-05B) to the assigned Judge for consideration.
- (b) Motions for Contempt. If a motion for contempt is filed separately without a Motion for Order to Show Cause, the Motion for Contempt shall be filed with the Clerk. The Motion for Contempt must include a copy of the order which is alleged to have been violated.
- (c) Calendaring Show Cause Hearings and/or Motions for Contempt. The assigned FCCC shall calendar the case for hearing before the assigned Judge upon issuance of the Order to Appear and Show Cause (WAKE-DOM-05B). If the Order to Show Cause is denied, the movant may submit a subsequent Calendar Request to schedule a Motion for Contempt. If an Order to Appear and Show Cause is issued, notice of the hearing date shall be contained in the Order; otherwise, the movant shall properly file and serve a Notice of Hearing with regard to the Motion for Contempt.
- (d) Motions to Withdraw. All Motions to Withdraw shall be calendared in advance of any assigned trial date. Motions to Withdraw that are consented to in writing by the client may be signed in chambers; however, prior to submitting the order to the assigned Judge the motion to withdraw must be served on opposing counsel or the opposing party if he or she is appearing pro se five (5) days before submission for signature. Withdrawal of counsel within two (2) weeks before a scheduled hearing shall not be the sole grounds for a continuance of the hearing in question, and the Motion or Order to Withdraw (whichever is signed by the party) must contain such acknowledgment by the party. Further, the Motion to Withdraw must indicate if there are any outstanding orders in a case (including orders from matters taken under advisement and orders to be drafted by opposing counsel).

5.2 Pretrial Conferences. Any attorney may request, by way of a calendar request, a pretrial conference regarding any substantive matter (for equitable distribution, see Rule 11). The assigned Judge may require a pretrial conference for any matter which is deemed appropriate.

5.3 Ex Parte / Emergency Matters. Ex parte and/or emergency orders (ex parte/emergency) shall not be sought except from the assigned Judge and then only for such circumstances as are allowed by the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, statute or other law. A party seeking an ex parte/emergency order must file and present his/her Motion for Ex Parte/Emergency Custody, Ex Parte Emergency Information Sheet (WAKE-DOM-30), and proposed Order no later than 4:00 p.m. on a business day, or the motion may not be reviewed by the assigned Judge until the next business day. If an order has been entered addressing the claim which is the basis of the ex parte/emergency request, a copy of the order must also be submitted to the Clerk at the time the ex parte/emergency paperwork is filed.

- (a) Notice to Opposing Party. In cases wherein the moving party knows the other litigant to be represented by counsel, reasonable notice, including a copy of the motion, shall be given to opposing counsel who shall be given the opportunity to be present at the time of making the motion before the Court. Reasonable notice shall be presumed to be oral or written notice given at least two (2) hours prior to filing for the purpose of making the motion. A copy of the motion shall be delivered to the opposing party/counsel at the time notice is given. At all times practicable, and unless emergency circumstances warrant otherwise, reasonable notice of the motion shall also be given to an opposing party not represented by counsel. If the opposing party is notified, the opposing counsel or a pro se litigant shall be given an opportunity to review the motion and proposed order prior to the emergency hearing. Failure of moving counsel to notify opposing counsel, where known, may result in a denial of the relief sought upon objection of opposing counsel and may result in the order being set aside to give the opposing counsel the opportunity to be heard along with imposition of appropriate sanctions in the discretion of the Judge. When seeking an ex parte ruling, a party must inform the Court of the identity of opposing counsel, if any. An Ex Parte Emergency Information Sheet (WAKE-DOM-30) must be attached to every ex parte motion.

- (b) Emergency Hearings. Motions for ex parte/emergency orders shall be submitted in writing to the assigned Judge. Emergency matters may be heard by the Judge assigned to the case regardless of the session at which the Judge may be presiding. If the Judge assigned to the case is not available to hear ex parte or other emergency matters, the ex parte or other emergency matters may be heard by any Family Court Judge currently assigned to Domestic Court or by any other Judge designated by the Chief District Court Judge to hear emergency matters. Unless the moving party is requesting a warrant directing law enforcement to take immediate physical custody of a minor child, an emergency/temporary hearing pursuant to this section may be conducted in chambers in the discretion of the Judge. If a warrant directing law enforcement to take immediate physical custody is requested, the moving party must provide the testimony of a witness supporting the motion.
- (c) Return Hearing. If an ex parte/emergency order is entered by a Judge, a return hearing must be scheduled within ten (10) days of issuance and the order shall include the date for the return hearing. The FCCC shall schedule the date for the return hearing and a Calendar Request shall not be required.

5.4 Virtual Hearings. Non-dispositive motions, scheduling and pre-trial conferences, judicial settlement conferences, motions for summary judgment divorce, and emergency motions may be heard virtually via WebEx at www.WebEx.com. The Chief District Court Judge may issue administrative orders which establish protocols and limitations for virtual hearings. One or more parties may move for a case to be heard virtually, or the presiding Judge may in his or her own discretion, require a virtual conference or motion. All virtual hearings are subject to the protocols established by the Chief District Court Judge. Parties may object a remote hearing for good cause.

References in these rules to “hearings” shall also mean “virtual hearings.”

References to an “appearance” or “attendance” at a hearing shall include virtual appearances or attendances, as applicable.

If there is a conflict between these Local Rules regarding temporary hearings and administrative orders of the Chief District Court Judge regarding virtual hearings, the administrative orders shall govern.

Exhibits for virtual hearings must be provided to all parties and the FCCC in advance of the hearing as provided in the protocols established by the Chief District Court Judge.

RULE 6: CHILD SUPPORT CASES

6.1 5D Child Support Cases.

- (a) All IV-D child support cases - cases in which Wake County Child Support Services [“CSS”] is a party to the action - shall be calendared and set in the specialized Child Support Court, which is currently Courtroom 5D. The Chief District Court Judge may promulgate additional Local Rules for IV-D child support cases.
- (b) If CSS is not a party to the case, but the matter has been previously heard in the specialized Child Support Court (for example, a Voluntary Support Agreement, a former “clerk’s case”, or CSS was released from the case by court Order), then the case shall continue to be heard in the specialized Child Support Court unless a motion is filed and an order signed pursuant to subsection (c).
- (c) If CSS is not a party to the case, the obligor or obligee may move to have a case previously heard in the specialized Child Support Court (for example, a Voluntary Support Agreement, a former “clerk’s case”, or a case in which CSS was released from the case by court Order), scheduled in Family Court rather than the specialized Child Support Court. This motion may be heard out of court by the assigned Judge in consultation with the child support judge as assigned by the Chief District Court Judge. The party requesting the motion be heard shall file said completed Motion to the FCCC and shall simultaneously properly ensure service of a copy on (1) the opposing party or his/her attorney and (2) the Child Support Enforcement/IV-D Agency.

The motion shall state that the opposing party or his attorney and the CSS/IV-D Agency shall have ten (10) days to file a Statement to oppose the matter being heard in Family Court. After the ten (10) day period has passed, the Court shall enter an Order granting or denying the Motion.

Once the Motion is granted or denied, the moving party shall serve a copy of the Order on the opposing party or his/her attorney and the CSS/IV-D Agency.

- (d) All other non-IV-D cases that have an assigned Judge shall be set for hearing by the FCCC in accordance with Rule 3.0 except as provided below: If CSS files a Motion to Intervene and Sever in a non-IV-D child support case, that Motion shall be calendared and set in the specialized Child Support Courtroom. Upon filing, CSS shall provide a copy of the Motion to Intervene and Sever to the FCCC of the Judge assigned to the case and, upon entry of an order either granting or denying the Motion, CSS shall notify the FCO by providing a copy of the order via email to the FCCC of the Judge assigned to the case.

6.2 Financial Information Required in Child Support Cases. See Rule 10.

6.3 Temporary Child Support Hearings. A hearing shall be set and a temporary child support order entered pursuant to N.C.G.S. §50-32. Upon filing of a claim or motion for temporary child support, the assigned FCCC shall schedule a temporary child support hearing in accordance with these Rules.

- (a) Length of Hearing. Temporary child support hearings shall be limited to one (1) hour. Each party will have up to thirty minutes to present his or her case, including direct and cross-examination, opening statements and closing arguments. With written notice to the opposing party at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing date, parties may request from the Court additional time, which the assigned Judge may allow in his or her discretion. The party seeking additional time must contact the assigned FCCC in writing (including email, facsimile) contemporaneous with sending notice to the opposing party. If the assigned Judge approves the request, the FCCC will notify both parties and will adjust the anticipated time required. In any event, timely notice of the change must be provided to the opposing party (pro se litigant or attorney).
- (b) Use of Affidavits and Sworn Declarations. Evidence in temporary child support hearings may be by affidavit(s) or sworn declaration(s), and shall be properly executed. Parties wishing to use affidavits or sworn declarations from the parties, accountants, private investigators or other third parties must deliver the affidavits (excluding attorney's fee affidavits) to the other party by any means reasonably calculated to ensure receipt no later than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled hearing. Rebuttals (i.e., affidavits or sworn declarations) which are a direct response to the opposing party's affidavits or declarations, shall be delivered to the other party by any means reasonably calculated to ensure receipt no later than three (3) days before the scheduled hearing. The Court will not consider affidavits or sworn declarations which are not served on the opposing party in accordance with these Rules. Such affidavit shall not be filed with the Clerk; however, the certificate of service shall be filed with the Clerk.

(c) Temporary Order. The temporary child support order shall be non-prejudicial to both parties. In Guidelines cases, a completed Child Support Worksheet (AOC-CV-627, 628 or 629) shall be attached to the temporary order which is filed with the Clerk of Court.

(d) Dismissal of Temporary Child Support Claim. If a party asserts a claim for temporary child support, the matter may be scheduled by the FCCC at the time of filing in accordance with the Time Standards referred to in Rule 1.3. If the claim is not timely scheduled for hearing, the claim may be involuntarily dismissed without prejudice for failure to comply with these Rules.

6.4 Child Support Orders. All child support orders for payments which are ordered to be paid through North Carolina Child Support Centralized Collections shall have a current Child Support Cover Sheet (AOC-CV-640) and shall be submitted with the order to the FCCC.

6.5 Child Support Payment Directions. If the party paying child support is ordered to pay directly to Centralized Collections, then the payment should be mailed to: N.C. Child Support Centralized Collections, P.O. Box 900006, Raleigh, N.C., 27675.

If the party is paying child support through wage withholding, then the payment should be mailed to: N.C. Child Support Centralized Collections, P.O. Box 900012, Raleigh, N.C., 27675.

Military payments for child support should be mailed to: N.C. Child Support Centralized Collections, P.O. Box 900015, Raleigh, N.C., 27675.

For other payors not previously listed, including out of state payors or bonds, payments should be mailed to: N.C. Child Support Centralized Collections, PO Box 900020, Raleigh, N.C. 27675.

RULE 7: CHILD CUSTODY CASES

7.1 Definitions. As used herein, “Custody” includes child custody, visitation, or other parenting issues (not including child support). “CMO” is the Custody Mediation Office of Wake County.

7.2 Custody Mediation. Each custody case shall be subject to mediation pursuant to N.C.G.S. §50-13.1 and Rule 8 herein. Upon the filing of a custody case, custody mediation orientation shall be scheduled in accordance with Rules 8.2 and 8.3 herein unless an Order to Waive Custody Mediation (AOC-CV-632) is entered in accordance with Rule 8.4 herein.

A Motion and Order to Waive Custody Mediation shall not be required if prior to the scheduled custody mediation orientation or mediation sessions the parties submit a consent order resolving all pending custody issues.

7.3 Temporary Custody Hearings. Upon the filing of a claim or motion for temporary custody, the assigned FCCC shall schedule a temporary custody hearing pursuant to Rule 3 herein. If a request for a temporary hearing is made in the complaint or in a motion, the FCCC shall schedule a hearing pursuant to these Rules. The moving party shall ensure proper service and notice upon the opposing party or counsel of a Notice of Hearing and calendar request. Unless a hearing is sent to another Courtroom by the assigned Judge, temporary custody hearings shall be heard before the assigned Judge.

- (a) Length of Hearing. Temporary custody hearings shall be limited to two (2) hours. Each party will have up to one (1) hour to present his or her case, including direct and cross-examination, opening and closing arguments. With written notice to the opposing party at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing date, parties may request from the Court additional time, which the assigned Judge may allow in his or her discretion. The party seeking additional time must contact the assigned FCCC in writing (including email, facsimile) contemporaneous with sending notice to the opposing party. If the assigned Judge approves the request, the FCCC will notify both parties and will adjust the anticipated time required. In any event, timely notice of the change must be provided to the opposing party (pro se litigant or attorney).
- (b) Temporary Custody Order. Any order entered in a temporary custody hearing shall be without prejudice to either party and subject to full hearing on the merits at a later date, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

7.4 Child's Representation in Custody Cases. In all matters where the custody of a child is at issue (Chapter 50 or 50B), the presiding Judge may appoint an attorney for the child(ren) as provided hereinbelow.³

- (a) The Child's Advocate ["TCA"] is a special project of Legal Aid of North Carolina which, upon appointment by the Court, assigns (1) a staff attorney, or (2) a qualified pro bono attorney to represent children in custody proceedings in Wake County. The Child's Advocate is a child's attorney who advocates for the child's objectives, and protects the child's interests throughout the litigation, and when possible, helps the parties to resolve the litigation without a trial.

³ In early March 2025, Legal Aid of North Carolina announced The Child's Advocate, a Wake County and Durham County Project administered by Legal Aid, would no longer be accepting new appointments due to funding limitations. This Rule, and its subdivisions, will be sunset; however, it remains in effect to the extent that any existing appointments shall continue until appropriate disposition of the TCA's role in pending cases.

- (b) Appointment Process. The TCA may be appointed by the Court on its own motion or upon motion of a party, provided the Court shall reserve appointment of TCA for those custody cases in which the Court’s inquiry into the best interests of the child is facilitated by the child having an attorney. Such cases typically include one or more of the following circumstances: domestic violence, child abuse, child resisting/refusing contact, children with special needs, relocation, mental illness, substance abuse of the parties or the child’s gender identity or sexual orientation is at issue. All appointments shall be made using the most current version of the form: Order Appointing The Child’s Advocate or Pro Bono Attorney (WAKE-DOM-29).

The Court shall allow no less than ninety (90) days between the date of appointment and the date of the next scheduled hearing, as this will allow TCA to locate a pro bono attorney if necessary, meet with the minor child (ren), investigate the case, and prepare for trial.

At trial, the assigned Judge shall use his/her discretion in allotting the appropriate trial time to TCA pertaining to the particular issues in dispute.

- (c) Service to be made upon TCA or Pro Bono Attorney. The moving party shall be responsible for ensuring proper service upon TCA a copy of the signed appointment. The FCCC shall be responsible for service on TCA of the appointment order when entered upon the Court’s own motion. After TCA or Pro Bono Attorney is appointed, the parties or their attorneys shall serve TCA or Pro Bono Attorney with all pleadings, motions, including motions for emergency custody, and other legal documents at the same time as service is made on the other party.
- (d) Eligible Children. TCA can accept appointments for children between the ages of 9 and 17 years who reside in Wake County or have visitation with a party living in Wake County.
- (e) Fees. TCA does not charge for its services but may motion for the court for sanctions to be assessed against a party who fails to comply with the appointment order.

RULE 8: MANDATORY CUSTODY MEDIATION

[NOTE: These Rules incorporate by reference the “Uniform Rules Regulating Mediation of Child Custody and Visitation Disputes Under the North Carolina Custody and Visitation

Mediation Program” as contained in CUSTODY AND VISITATION MEDIATION PROGRAM PROCEDURES MANUAL, North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts, October 1999.]

8.1 Custody Mediation. The parties to any custody and/or visitation case, including initial filings and modifications, shall participate in mandatory mediation unless exempted by the Court. The FCO shall notify the CMO of all actions involving custody/visitation subject to mediation as set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-13.1. Unless exempted, the parties shall proceed with mediation in accordance with these Rules.

(a) Virtual Mediation: Custody mediation may be virtual and/or in person at the direction of the CMO.

8.2 Scheduling Mediation Orientation. Orientation shall be scheduled for each initial custody and visitation case. A copy of the Order to Attend (WAKE-DOM-07) containing the orientation date shall be served by the initiating party on the opposing parties or their counsel of record. Orientation shall be scheduled as follows: within forty-five (45) days of the filing of the pleading in 100% of the cases; for cases in which a Stipulation for Expedited Mediation (WAKE-DOM-14) has been filed (where the parties or their counsel have stipulated to an earlier orientation date), orientation shall be scheduled on the first available date.

8.3 Scheduling Mediation. If the parties have previously attended orientation, the FCCC shall refer the moving party to the CMO to obtain a mediation date. The moving party shall serve a copy of the Order to Attend (WAKE-DOM-07), containing the mediation date, on the opposing party. If the parties have not previously attended orientation, then the CMO shall schedule mediation at the time of orientation.

8.4 Exemption from Custody Mediation. A party may move for an exemption from mediation for good cause. Good cause may include, but is not limited to, the following as set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-13.1(c): a showing of undue hardship to a party; an agreement between the parties for voluntary mediation; allegations of abuse or neglect of the minor child; allegations of alcoholism, drug abuse, or spouse abuse; or allegations of severe psychological, psychiatric, or emotional problems. A showing by a party that he or she resides more than fifty (50) miles from the Court shall be considered good cause, unless virtual mediation is an option. Counsel or parties desiring an exemption shall complete, file and serve on the opposing party a Motion and Order to Waive Custody Mediation (AOC-CV-632). Counsel or a party may file a written objection to the Motion to Waive Custody Mediation within five (5) days of the filing date of the motion. The Court, in its discretion, may grant these motions out of session, based on the written motion and objections submitted by the parties or counsel, or may require a hearing. If the parties have a domestic violence protective order [“DVPO”], then a copy of the DVPO should be attached to the Motion and Order to Waive Custody Mediation. The Court, on its own motion and for good cause, may waive custody mediation.

If the parties are required to participate in custody mediation because of a pending Show Cause Hearing or Motion for Contempt, (see Rule 5.1(c)(1) herein), the appointment of a parenting coordinator also may constitute “good cause” to exempt the parties from custody mediation.

8.5 No Discovery. No discovery regarding a custody or visitation claim shall be served, noticed, or conducted until the mediation process is complete or the claim has been exempted from mediation by judicial order pursuant to Rule 8.4 herein. Discovery may proceed regarding financial information; however, depositions of the parties shall not be had until custody mediation has concluded.

8.6 Confidentiality. All oral or written communications made during or in furtherance of mediation pursuant to these Rules by either or both parties to the mediator or between the parties in the presence of the mediator are absolutely privileged and inadmissible in Court. Neither the mediator nor any party or other person involved in mediation under these Rules shall be called to testify as to communications made during or in furtherance of such mediation sessions. There is no privilege as to communications made in furtherance of a crime or fraud. Under this Rule, an individual shall not obtain immunity from prosecution for criminal conduct or be excused from the reporting requirement of N.C.G.S. §108A-102.

8.7 Parenting Agreements. If the parties are able to reach a Parenting Agreement, the mediator will prepare a draft and distribute copies to all parties and their attorneys, advising the parties to review the agreement with their attorneys. Although the CMO may schedule a time for the parties to return to the CMO for signature, the CMO may also opt to mail each party a copy of the final draft of the Parenting Agreement to sign, in which case the CMO shall promptly file the signed agreement to the assigned Judge. The assigned Judge shall review each Agreement and, if appropriate, make the Parenting Agreement an Order of the Court by signing an Order Approving Parenting Agreement (AOC 7-CV-631). The CMO will file this order with the Clerk.

8.8 Partial Parenting Agreements. If a Partial Parenting Agreement is reached, the mediator will prepare a final draft of the Partial Agreement and mail copies to both parties and their attorneys. A list of the unresolved issues may be attached. As with a Parenting Agreement, each party should promptly review, sign and return the Partial Agreement to the CMO once they have reviewed the copies with their attorneys. The CMO will file the Partial Parenting Agreement to the assigned Judge for approval and, if necessary, refer the unresolved issues for calendaring. Calendaring will be as in other domestic matters. The assigned Judge shall review each agreement and, if appropriate, enter an Order approving the Partial Parenting Agreement (AOC-CV-635). The CMO will file this order with the Clerk. The mediator will notify the FCCC of the unresolved issues for calendaring.

8.9 Distribution of Orders. Copies of all orders entered under Rules 8.7 and 8.8 herein shall be filed by the CMO to counsel and mailed to pro se parties.

8.10 No Agreement Reached at Mediation. If the parties do not reach a permanent Parenting Agreement or if one or both parties fail to attend the custody mediation orientation or the custody mediation session, then the CMO shall appropriately note the impasse at Mediation in the portal. If the Assigned judge orders the issue be calendared for hearing, calendaring will be as in other domestic matters. If a party fails to appear at Mediation, the assigned Judge may order sanctions pursuant to Rule 19 and/or may still proceed with a hearing on custody while noting one party's failure to appear at, or refusal to participate in, Mediation.

8.11 Parenting Education Program. At any time after filing a claim for child custody and or visitation, the Court may in its discretion order one or both of the parents to attend a parenting education program.

8.12 Removal from Mediation Process. When custody and/or visitation issues have been completely settled by consent or dismissed, the issues shall be removed from the mediation process. Upon submission to the FCCC of a written dismissal or consent order, the parties shall not be required to file a Motion and Order to Waive Custody Mediation (AOC-CV-632).

RULE 9: POSTSEPARATION SUPPORT & ALIMONY

9.1 Calendaring Hearing. Upon filing of a claim or motion for postseparation support and/or related attorney's fees, the FCCC shall calendar issues of postseparation support and related attorney's fees for hearing in accordance with these Rules.

9.2 Financial Information Required. In all cases involving postseparation support and/or alimony, each party shall serve a Financial Affidavit (WAKE-DOM-10) upon the opposing party. Individual judges may request that the parties use a specific format (either Word or Excel) for the Financial Affidavit. The moving party shall serve his/her completed Financial Affidavit on the opposing party within twenty (20) days before the hearing date. The opposing party shall serve the moving party with his/her completed Financial Affidavit (WAKE-DOM-10) within ten (10) days of the hearing date. The Financial Affidavit shall not be filed with the Court; however a certificate of service of the Financial Affidavit shall be filed with the Clerk.

In addition to service of their completed Financial Affidavits, the parties shall exchange financial information as required by Rule 10 herein entitled “Initial Disclosures Regarding Financial Issues in a Chapter 50 Action for Child Support, Postseparation Support and/or Alimony.”

9.3 Moving Party’s Responsibility. In addition to the service of financial information as set forth above, the party seeking postseparation support and/or alimony or the modification of an existing spousal support order, shall serve upon the opposing party the following: the pleading (or motion); the Affidavit for Judicial Assignment and Notice of Hearing (WAKE-DOM-02) (if required by these Rules); a blank Financial Affidavit (WAKE-DOM-10); and a Notice of Financial Information Required (WAKE-DOM-11). A Notice of Hearing shall be served in accordance with Rule 3 and the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

9.4 Employer Wage Affidavits. Upon request of the opposing party/opposing counsel, a party shall submit an Employer Wage Affidavit (WAKE-DOM-12) to his or her employer(s) for completion. The affidavit completed by the employer must be served on the opposing party at least seven (7) days before the hearing on the pending request for support or modification thereof. The affidavit completed by the employer shall not be filed with the Court. However, a certificate of service of the Employer Wage Affidavit shall be filed with the Clerk.

9.5 Postseparation Support Hearings. If a claim for temporary child support is also pending, it shall be heard along with the claim for postseparation support, if practicable.

- (a) Duration. Postseparation support hearings shall be limited to one (1) hour. Each party will have up to thirty (30) minutes to present his or her case, including opening statements, direct and cross-examination and closing arguments. With written notice to the opposing party at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing date, either party may request from the Court additional time to present complicated cases, which the assigned Judge may allow, in his or her discretion. The party seeking additional time must contact the assigned FCCC in writing (including email, facsimile) contemporaneous with sending notice to the opposing party. If the assigned Judge approves the request, the FCCC will notify both parties and will adjust the anticipated time required. In any event, timely notice of the change must be provided to the opposing party (pro se litigant or attorney).
- (b) Use of Affidavits. Evidence in postseparation support hearings may be by affidavits. Parties wishing to use affidavits from the parties, accountants, private investigators or other third parties must deliver the affidavits (excluding attorney’s fee affidavits) to the other party by any means reasonably calculated to ensure receipt no later than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled hearing. Rebuttal affidavits (i.e., affidavits that are a direct response to the other party's affidavits) shall be delivered to the opposing party by any means reasonably calculated to ensure receipt no later than five (5) days before the scheduled hearing. The Court will not consider affidavits which are not served on the opposing party in accordance with these Rules. Such affidavits shall not be filed with the Court. However, certificate of service of the affidavit(s) shall be filed with the Clerk.

- (c) Establishment of Alimony. If, at the postseparation support hearing, both parties and the presiding Judge agree, the parties may proceed with a hearing for the establishment of an order for alimony. If an order for postseparation support is entered, either party may proceed to calendar the alimony hearing pursuant to Rule 3.
- (d) Dismissal of Postseparation Support Claim. If a party asserts a claim for postseparation support and it is not set for hearing within one hundred fifty (150) days of the filing of the claim, the claim may be involuntarily dismissed without prejudice for failure to comply with these Rules.

RULE 10: INITIAL DISCLOSURES REGARDING FINANCIAL ISSUES IN A CHAPTER 50 ACTION FOR CHILD SUPPORT, POSTSEPARATION SUPPORT AND/OR ALIMONY

10.1 Duty of Financial Disclosure. Every party to an action in which child support (other than IV-D and other child support issues heard in the specialized Child Support Court), postseparation support, or alimony is an issue has the duty to provide the documents designated by this Rule to other parties or their counsel. The designated documents are defined as “Initial Disclosures (Support).”

- (a) Party Claiming Support. The party who is filing a complaint, claim or motion for support should be aware of the requirement for Initial Disclosures and start the accumulation process prior to filing the complaint, claim or motion so the Initial Disclosures can be made soon after filing. The party claiming support shall provide his or her Initial Disclosures and a filed Certification of Initial Disclosures (Support) (WAKE-DOM-17A) fifteen (15) days after service of his or her complaint, claim, or motion for support. In no event shall the party seeking support provide the Initial Disclosures less than ten (10) days before any scheduled hearing.
- (b) Party from Whom Support is Claimed. The party from whom support is claimed shall provide his or her Initial Disclosures and a filed Certification of Initial Disclosures (Support) (WAKE-DOM-17A) within twenty-five (25) days of service of the complaint, claim or motion. In no event shall the party from whom support is claimed provide the Initial Disclosures less than ten (10) days before any scheduled hearing.

- (c) Certification of Initial Disclosures. When the Certification of Initial Disclosures is filed with the Court, copies of the disclosed documents must not be included with this e- filing nor should these documents be included in the Court file.

10.2 Documents to be provided as Initial Disclosures where a claim for Child Support has been filed or where a claim for a modification to an existing Child Support obligation has been filed:

- (a) If the North Carolina Child Support Guidelines apply, produce the following:

- Documents reflecting income (as defined in the North Carolina Child Support Guidelines) from any and all sources for the last two (2) years preceding the filing of the claim;
- Income tax returns for the last two (2) years, including W-2, 1099 forms, K1 forms, and all schedules and attachments;
- Pay stubs for the last six (6) months;
- Documents reflecting expenses for current childcare and payments made for which reimbursement is sought;
- Documents reflecting expenses for current healthcare insurance and payments made for which reimbursement is sought;
- Documents reflecting expenses for uninsured medical expenses paid for which reimbursement is sought;
- Documents reflecting any extraordinary expenses;
- Documents regarding any obligation for child support for any child(ren) for whom support is not sought; and
- Documents reflecting ownership of stock, stock options, Restricted Stock Units [“RSU’s”] and other stock awards.

- (b) In any case in which a deviation from the North Carolina Child Support Guidelines is sought, or in which there is an unincorporated separation agreement establishing child support, and/or in which the Guidelines do not apply due to high incomes, produce the following:

- All of the information requested above in 10.2(a);
- Bank statements for the last six (6) months, including cancelled checks, check register, online statements, and evidence of checks paid (i.e., Quicken, general ledgers, etc.);

- Credit card statements for the last six (6) months for any credit card for which you are an authorized user;
 - List of all financial accounts, including account number, name of account holder, institution, address and phone number, of all in which you have or have had any interest in the last twelve (12) months;
 - Business tax returns for the past two (2) years, including K-1 and all attachments and schedules;
 - Business bank statements, including cancelled checks, check register, online statements and evidence of checks paid for the last six (6) months;
 - Credit card statements used for business expenses for the last six (6) months for any credit card for which you are an authorized user; and
 - Financial Affidavit (the non-moving party shall file his or her responsive Financial Affidavit on the opposing party as set forth in Rule 9.2).
- (c) If a party is self-employed and/or receives income from any other source in addition to salary (other than dividends, interest income and/or capital gains of less than $3,000 per year), then regardless of whether the North Carolina Child Support Guidelines apply, that party shall produce the following:
- All of the information requested above in 10.2(a); and
 - All of the information requested above in 10.2(b).

10.3 Documents to be provided as Initial Disclosures where a claim for Postseparation Support and/or Alimony has been filed or where a claim for a modification to an existing Postseparation Support and/or Alimony obligation has been filed:

- (a) All of the information requested above in 10.2(a) and 10.2(b), except for documents related to expenses for minor child(ren).

10.4 Employer Wage Affidavits. Upon request of the opposing party/opposing counsel, the other party shall submit an Employer Wage Affidavit (WAKE-DOM-12) to his or her employer(s) for completion. The affidavit completed by the employer shall not be filed with the Court but must be properly served on the opposing party at least five (5) days prior to the first hearing or conference on the pending request for support or modification thereof. However, a certificate of service of the Employer Wage Affidavit shall be filed with the Clerk.

10.5 Scope. Unless previously disclosed by either party, the disclosing party is required to provide the documents specified in Rule 10.2 and/or 10.3 which are in his or her custody or control. Documents are defined to be in the custody or control of the party if: (a) they can be obtained by him or her because the party is a joint title or account holder; or (b) the documents were prepared by another person (e.g. CPA, accountant, bookkeeper) at the party's direction or on his or her behalf whether the account is held individually or jointly with another.

10.6 Method of Disclosure. The Initial Disclosures required under this Rule shall be made by furnishing copies of the documents to the attorney of record for the opposing party at his/her business address, or, if the opposing party is not represented (pro se), by furnishing the disclosures to the opposing party via the United States Mail or by hand-delivery on or before the required due date. By mutual consent of the parties and/or counsel, the Initial Disclosures may also be served by electronic mail or facsimile.

10.7 Effect of Failure to Comply. The Rules herein providing for a duty of disclosure shall constitute a discovery request within the meaning of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Failure to establish good cause for noncompliance with the disclosure rules by the party seeking support may be grounds for continuation of the hearing or such other sanction as provided by Rule 37 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. Failure to establish good cause for noncompliance with the disclosure rules by the party from whom support is sought may be grounds for denying that party the right to defend the claim for support or such other sanction as provided by Rule 37 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

10.8 Duty to Amend Initial Disclosures. After the Initial Disclosures are made pursuant to these Rules, each party shall be under a continuing duty to amend or supplement in a timely manner the original documentation if there has been a substantial change in any of the original information provided (i.e., an amended tax return, adjusted or revised financial statements, or documents reflecting a change in income).

10.9 Confidentiality. Documents provided by a party pursuant to Rule 10.2 and/or 10.3 to the opposing party and/or his or her attorney are deemed confidential and may be disclosed only to the opposing party, his or her attorneys and other professional or financial advisors. Either party may seek additional restrictions against disclosure as may be provided by the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure; however, filing a motion for a protective order will not be grounds for failure to serve the Initial Disclosures on a timely basis.

RULE 11: EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION CLAIMS

11.1 Application. These Rules shall apply to all equitable distribution claims.

11.2 Time. The times set forth in these Rules may be modified either:

- (a) by written consent of both counsel/parties and approval of the assigned Judge; or
- (b) by entry of an order by the assigned Judge upon motion of either counsel/party and for good cause shown.

11.3 Sanctions. Failure to comply with these Rules may result in sanctions including, but not limited to: dismissal of a claim with or without prejudice; award of attorney fees to the non-offending party; refusal to allow evidence from the offending party as to some or all of the issues in the case; contempt; and any other sanction allowed by law.

11.4 Definitions.

- (a) “Moving Party” - the spouse who first files a claim for equitable distribution.
- (b) “Responding Party” - the spouse against whom the first claim for equitable distribution has been filed.
- (c) “Equitable Distribution Inventory Affidavit” [“EDIA”] - A full and complete disclosure of all marital, separate and divisible property and debt existing on the date of separation and as of the date of the submission of the EDIA to the opposing party, with each party’s best estimate as to the date of separation and present value of all assets and debts (WAKE-DOM-19).

11.5 Duties Upon Filing a Claim. At the time the first claim for equitable distribution is filed, the moving party shall:

- (a) Obtain from the FCCC a date for a Scheduling and Discovery Conference to be conducted by the FCCC unless a party requests the conference be conducted by the assigned Judge;
- (b) Immediately serve upon the Responding Party notice of the date, time and location in which the Scheduling and Discovery Conference is set; and
- (c) Serve the appropriate notice of hearing on the Responding Party.

11.6 Initial Disclosures Regarding Property and Financial Issues in Equitable Distribution.

- (a) Duty of Financial Disclosure. Every party to an action in which equitable distribution is an issue has a duty to provide the documents designated in this Rule to the other party or his or her counsel of record without a formal discovery request. The designated documents are defined as “Initial Disclosures (Equitable Distribution).”
 - (1) First Party to File Equitable Distribution Claim. The party who is first to file a claim for equitable distribution is required to provide his or her Initial Disclosures and a filed Certification of Initial Disclosures (Equitable Distribution) (WAKE-DOM-17B) along with his or her EDIA (WAKE-DOM-19) within ninety (90) days after filing the claim for equitable distribution.

(2) Party Responding to or Second to File Equitable Distribution Claim. The party responding to an equitable distribution claim (i.e. second to file) is required to provide his or her Initial Disclosures and a filed Certification of Initial Disclosures (Equitable Distribution) (WAKE-DOM-17B) and EDIA (WAKE-DOM-19) thirty (30) days after service of the initiating party's Initial Disclosures and EDIA.

(3) Certification of Initial Disclosures. When the Certification of Initial Disclosures is filed with the Court, copies of the disclosed documents must not be included with this filing nor should these documents be included in the Court file.

(b) Documents to be Provided as Initial Disclosures. As a general rule, a party's Initial Disclosures should be those documents which support the entries made on the party's EDIA. (For example, if a party lists real property on his or her EDIA, then he or she should produce: all documents reflecting the fair market value on the date of separation and currently; any note and Deed of Trust related to the property; and any document showing the principal balance of any note as of the date of separation and currently. In other words, the purpose of the Initial Disclosures is to provide verification for the entries made on the EDIA as of the date of separation (or closest to the date of separation) and currently). In particular, such Initial Disclosures should be produced for any real estate, vehicles of any kind, monetary accounts of any kind, retirement accounts of any kind, business interests and debts of any kind. To the extent such backup documents exist for other categories of property listed by a party on the various schedules of the EDIA, those should be produced as well. (For example, if a party lists as an asset a life insurance policy, he or she should produce as an Initial Disclosure a statement showing the cash surrender value, if any, of the policy on the date of separation). The actual supporting documents required to be produced as Initial Disclosures are listed on each schedule of the EDIA.

(c) Scope. The disclosing party is required to provide the documents specified in Rule 11.6(b) which are in his or her custody or control. Documents are defined to be in the custody or control of the party if such documents can be obtained by him or her if: (1) a party is title or account holder; or (2) the documents were prepared by a third party (i.e., CPA, accountant, bookkeeper) at a party's direction or on his or her behalf. If the party who is first to file an equitable distribution claim has already produced in his or her

Initial Disclosures a document that the responding party should also produce as an Initial Disclosure, the responding party is not required to produce the same document.

The EDIA and Initial Disclosures shall not be filed with the Clerk, but a certificate of service of the EDIA and Initial Disclosures shall be filed with the Clerk.

11.7 Method of Disclosure. The Initial Disclosures required under this Rule shall be made by furnishing copies of the documents to the attorney of record for the opposing party at his/her business address, or, if the opposing party is not represented (pro se), by furnishing the disclosures to the opposing party via the United States Mail or hand-delivery on or before the required due date. The Initial Disclosures may also be made by electronic mail or facsimile by mutual consent of the parties or their counsel.

11.8 Effect of Failure to Comply. The Rules herein providing for a duty of disclosure shall constitute a discovery request within the meaning of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and any non-complying party shall be subject to all applicable sanctions.

11.9 Duty to Amend Initial Disclosures. After the Initial Disclosures are made pursuant to this Rule, each party shall be under a continuing duty to amend or supplement the original documentation if there has been a substantial change in any of the original information provided. The duty to amend initial disclosures extends to production of updated account statements, tax returns and other documents up to the date of trial.

11.10 Confidentiality. Documents provided by a party pursuant to Rule 11.6(b) to the opposing party and/or his or her attorney are deemed confidential and may be disclosed only to the opposing party, his or her attorneys and other professional or financial advisors who will be equally bound by the requirement of confidentiality. Either party may seek additional restrictions against disclosure or other relief as may be provided by the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure; however, filing of a motion for a protective order will not be grounds for failure to timely serve all Initial Disclosures to which no objection is pending.

11.11 Scheduling and Discovery Conference. The Court shall discharge each of the duties set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-21(d) and on the timetable in Rule 11.15; shall take such further action as may be necessary to resolve pending motions or other issues between the parties; shall order a mediated settlement conference or other alternative dispute resolution pursuant to Rule 12 herein; and shall set dates for an Initial Pretrial Conference, a Final Pretrial Conference, and a trial date. The parties need not attend the Scheduling and Discovery Conference if they submit a signed consent Scheduling and Discovery Order

(WAKE-DOM-09), along with an Order Submission (WAKE-DOM-22) to the assigned Judge prior to or at the time of the Scheduling and Discovery Conference.

If only one party (or his/her attorney) appears for the Scheduling and Discovery Conference, the assigned Judge, may proceed with the conference such that a Scheduling and Discovery Order (WAKE-DOM-09) is entered.

If neither party (nor his/her attorney) appears for the Scheduling and Discovery Conference, the assigned Judge, may reset the hearing date for the conference and serve a Continuance Order upon both parties (or his/her attorney). A party's failure to appear at a second Scheduling and Discovery Conference may result in dismissal of that party's claim for equitable distribution.

11.12 Expedited Equitable Distribution Cases. At the Scheduling and Discovery Conference, a party or attorney shall indicate if he/she believes that the case may be appropriate for disposition as an expedited equitable distribution case. The following rules shall apply to such cases:

- (a) If the parties agree and the Court approves, an equitable distribution case may be processed as an expedited equitable distribution case. In general, a case may be appropriate for expedited equitable distribution procedures if the total net fair market value of the marital estate is less than $25,000.00, not including marital real estate and marital vested pensions.
- (b) A case designated as an expedited equitable distribution case may be given a trial setting within ninety (90) days of the Scheduling and Discovery Conference. A discovery schedule and mediation deadline for each expedited equitable distribution case shall be set at the Scheduling and Discovery Conference and an order entered setting out the dates for discovery, mediation and trial.

11.13 Initial Pretrial Conference. The Court shall discharge each of the duties set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-21(d) and on the timetable in Rule 11.15, shall take such further action as may be necessary to prepare the case for trial and shall set a definite date for a Final Pretrial Conference and for the trial of the case. All parties shall either be present in Court or available by WebEx at the time of this conference. The parties need not attend the Initial Pretrial Conference if they submit a signed consent order to the assigned Judge prior to or at the time of the Initial Pretrial Conference.

11.14 Final Pretrial Conference. The Court shall discharge each of the duties set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-21(d) and on the timetable in Rule 11.15. All parties shall be present in Court or available by WebEx at the time of this conference.

RULE 12: ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES IN EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION AND OTHER FAMILY FINANCIAL CASES

12.1 Purpose of Mandatory Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures. Pursuant to N.C.G.S. §7A-38.4A, Rule 12 is promulgated to implement a system of alternative dispute resolution [“ADR”] designed to focus the parties’ attention on settlement rather than on trial preparation and to provide a structured opportunity for settlement negotiations to take place. Nothing herein is intended to limit or prevent the parties from engaging in ADR procedures voluntarily at any time before or after those ordered by the Court pursuant to these Rules. In the event of a conflict between these Rules and the North Carolina Supreme Court Rules, the Supreme Court Rules shall govern.

12.2 Duty of Counsel to Consult with Clients and Opposing Counsel about ADR Procedures. Counsel, upon being retained to represent any party to a District Court case involving family financial issues, including equitable distribution, child support, alimony, postseparation support, or claims arising out of contracts between the parties under N.C.G.S. §50-20(d), §52-10, §52-10.1 or §52B, shall advise his or her client regarding the ADR procedures approved by this Rule and, at or prior to the Scheduling and Discovery Conference mandated by N.C.G.S. §50-21(d), shall attempt to reach agreement with the opposing party on the appropriate ADR procedure for the action.

12.3 Ordering ADR Procedures.

(a) Equitable Distribution Scheduling and Discovery Conference. At the Scheduling and Discovery Conference mandated by N.C.G.S. §50-21(d) and Rule 11.11, the Court shall include in the Scheduling and Discovery Order (WAKE-DOM-09) a requirement the parties and their counsel, if any, attend a mediated settlement conference or, if the parties agree, other ADR procedures conducted pursuant to these Rules, unless excused by the Court pursuant to these Rules.

On or before the date of the scheduled Scheduling and Discovery Conference, the parties may submit a proposed Consent S&D Order to avoid actual attendance at a conference.

(b) Scope of ADR Proceedings. All other financial issues existing between the parties when the equitable distribution ADR proceeding is ordered, or at any time thereafter, may be discussed, negotiated or decided at the proceeding. Child custody and visitation issues may be the subject of ADR proceedings ordered pursuant to these Rules only in those cases in which the parties and the mediator have agreed to include them and in which the parties have been exempted from, or have fulfilled the requirements of, the Custody and Visitation Mediation Program established pursuant to Rule 8 herein.

(c) Authorizing ADR Procedures Other Than Mediated Settlement Conference. The parties and their attorneys are in the best position to know which ADR procedure is appropriate for their case. Therefore, the Court shall order the use of an ADR procedure authorized by Rule 12.19 if the parties have agreed upon the procedure to be used, the neutral person to be employed and the compensation of the neutral person. If the parties have not agreed on all three of these items, then the Court shall order the parties and their counsel to attend a mediated settlement conference conducted pursuant to these Rules.

In the event the parties and their legal counsel, if represented, agree to an ADR procedure other than a mediated settlement conference, then the Motion for an Order to Use Settlement Procedure Other Than Mediated Settlement Conference or Judicial Settlement Conference in Family Financial Case (AOC-CV-826) shall be filed at or before the Scheduling and Discovery Conference and shall state:

- (1) the ADR procedure chosen by the parties;
- (2) the name, address and telephone number of the neutral person selected by the parties;
- (3) the rate of compensation of the neutral person; and
- (4) that all parties consent to the motion.

(d) Content of Order. The Scheduling and Discovery Order (WAKE-DOM-09) shall: (1) require a mediated settlement conference or other ADR proceeding be held in the case; (2) establish a deadline for the completion of the conference or proceeding; and (3) state the parties shall be required to pay the neutral person's fee at the conclusion of the mediated settlement conference or proceeding unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Any order entered at the completion of a Scheduling and Discovery Conference may be signed by the parties or their attorneys in lieu of submitting the forms referred to hereinafter relating to the selection of a mediator.

(e) Court-Ordered ADR Procedures in Other Family Financial Cases. Any party to an action involving family financial issues not previously ordered to a mediated settlement conference may move the Court to order the parties to participate in an ADR procedure. Such motion shall be made in writing, state the reasons why the order should be allowed and be served on the opposing party. Any objection to the motion or any request for hearing shall be filed in writing with the Court within ten (10) days after the date of the service of the motion. Thereafter, the assigned Judge shall rule upon the motion and notify the parties or their attorneys of the ruling. If the Court orders an ADR proceeding, then the proceeding shall be a mediated settlement conference conducted pursuant to these Rules. Other ADR procedures may be ordered if the circumstances outlined in subsection (c) above have been met.

- (f) Motion to Dispense with ADR Procedures. A party may move the Court to dispense with the mediated settlement conference or other ADR procedure. Such motion shall be in writing and shall state the reasons the relief is sought. The party filing such a motion shall schedule the matter for hearing pursuant to Rule 3 herein. For good cause shown, the Court may grant the motion. Such good cause may include the fact that the parties have participated in an ADR procedure prior to the Scheduling and Discovery Conference or have elected to resolve their case through arbitration or referee pursuant to Rule 13 or that one of the parties has alleged domestic violence. The Court may also dispense with the mediated settlement conference for good cause upon its own motion.

12.4 Selection of Certified Family Financial Mediator by Agreement of the Parties.

The parties may select a family financial mediator certified pursuant to these Rules by agreement prior to or during the Scheduling and Discovery Conference. Such designation shall state the name, email address, mailing address, and telephone number of the mediator selected, state the rate of compensation of the mediator, state that the mediator and counsel/ pro se litigant have agreed upon the selection and rate of compensation, and state that the mediator is certified pursuant to these Rules. A copy of the Scheduling and Discovery Order shall be delivered to the mediator by the FCCC.

12.5 Appointment of Certified Family Financial Mediator by the Court. If the parties cannot agree upon the selection of a mediator, they shall notify the Court at the Scheduling and Discovery Conference and the Court shall appoint a certified mediator in the Scheduling and Discovery Order. Notification to the Court may be made in consent Scheduling and Discovery Orders that the parties were unable to agree upon the selection of a mediator. The parties shall complete a Designation of Mediator in Family Financial Case (AOC-CV-825) and bring it to the Scheduling and Discovery Conference or submit it to the assigned judge in conjunction with the submission of a consent Scheduling and Discovery Order. The Court shall include the name, email address, mailing address, and telephone number of the mediator appointed by the Court.

12.6 Mediator Information Directory. To assist the parties in the selection of a mediator by agreement, the Family Court Administrator shall keep current a central directory of information on all mediators certified pursuant to Rules of the North Carolina Supreme Court for Settlement Procedures in District Court Family Financial Cases. Such information shall be made available to attorneys and parties upon request.

12.7 Disqualification of Mediator. Any party may move the Court for an order disqualifying the mediator by submitting the request, including the basis for disqualification, to the assigned FCCC for submission to the assigned Judge. The assigned Judge will determine whether the request can be determined ex parte or if a hearing shall be required. For good cause, such order shall be entered. If the mediator is disqualified, a replacement mediator shall be selected or appointed pursuant to Rule 12.4 or 12.5 herein. Nothing in this provision shall preclude mediators from disqualifying themselves.

12.8 Location and Time of the Mediated Settlement Conference.

- (a) The mediated settlement conference shall be held in any location agreed upon by the parties and the mediator. If the parties cannot agree on a location, the mediator shall be responsible for reserving a neutral place and making arrangements for the conference and for giving timely notice of the time and location of the conference to all attorneys and pro se litigants.
- (b) The conference should be held after the parties have had a reasonable time to conduct discovery but well in advance of the trial date to the extent possible. The Court's order issued pursuant to Rule 12.3(a) shall state a deadline for completion of the conference. The mediator shall set a date and time for the conference pursuant to Rule 12.16(f).

12.9 Requests to Expedite or Extend.

- (a) Expedite. Either party may file a motion to expedite mediation for good cause shown. Said motions shall be filed and served according to the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, shall be submitted to the assigned Judge, and shall state the reasons for the motion. The motion shall be calendared pursuant to Rule 3 herein.
- (b) Extend. Upon consent of both parties or upon motion of the mediator, the initial mediation deadline may be extended so long as it does not affect other dates or deadlines established in the Scheduling & Discovery Order. If the parties consent to an extension, a consent order or stipulation shall be filed with the Court, signed by all parties, submitted to and approved by the assigned Judge. Any further requests to extend the mediation deadline shall be made by filing a motion with the Court.

12.10 Recesses. The mediator may recess the conference at any time and may set times for reconvening. If the time for reconvening is set during the conference, no further notification is required for persons present at the conference.

12.11 Delay of Other Proceedings. The mediated settlement conference shall not be cause for the delay of other proceedings in the case, including the completion of discovery, the filing or hearing of motions, or the trial of the case, except by order of the Court.

12.12 Duties of Parties, Attorneys and Other Participants in Mediated Settlement Conferences.

- (a) The following persons shall attend a mediated settlement conference:
 - (1) the parties, and
 - (2) at least one attorney of record for each party whose counsel has appeared in the action.
- (b) Any person required to attend a mediated settlement conference shall personally attend until such time as an agreement has been reached or the mediator, after conferring with the parties and their counsel, if any, declares an impasse. Personal attendance shall mean in person attendance, or, if the mediator agrees, by Zoom or other video conferencing platform. No mediator shall prolong a conference unduly.
- (c) Any person may have the attendance requirement excused or modified, including allowing a person to participate by phone and/or video conferencing by agreement of both parties and the mediator or by order of the Court.

12.13 Finalizing by Notarized Agreement, Consent Order and/or Dismissal. The essential terms of the parties' agreement shall be reduced to writing as a summary memorandum at the conclusion of the conference unless the parties have reduced their agreement to writing, have signed it and in all other respects have complied with the requirements of Chapter 50 of the North Carolina General Statutes. The parties and their counsel shall use the summary memorandum as a guide to draft such agreements and orders as may be required to give legal effect to the terms.

Within thirty (30) days of reaching agreement at the conference, all final agreements and other dispositive documents shall be executed by the parties and notarized, and judgments or voluntary dismissals shall be filed with the Clerk. In the event the parties fail to agree on the wording or terms of a final agreement or Court order, the mediator may schedule such other sessions as the mediator determines would assist the parties.

12.14 Payment of the Mediator's Fee. The parties shall pay the mediator's fee as provided by Rule 12.17 herein.

12.15 Sanction for Failure to Attend Mediated Settlement Conferences. If any person required to attend a mediated settlement conference fails to attend without good cause, the Court may impose upon that person any appropriate monetary sanction including, but not limited to, the payment of attorney's fees, mediator fees, expenses and loss of earnings incurred by persons attending the conference.

A party to the action seeking sanctions shall file a written motion stating the grounds for the motion and the relief sought. Said motion shall be served upon all parties and on any person against whom sanctions are being sought. If the Court imposes sanctions, it shall do so, after notice and a hearing, in a written order, making findings of fact supported by substantial evidence and conclusions of law.

12.16 Authority and Duties of the Mediator.

- (a) Control of Conference. The mediator shall, at all times, be in control of the conference and the procedures to be followed. However, the mediator's conduct shall be governed by standards of conduct promulgated by the North Carolina Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Dispute Resolution Commission, which shall contain a provision prohibiting mediators from prolonging a conference unduly.
- (b) Disclosure. The mediator has a duty to be impartial and to advise all participants of any circumstance bearing on possible bias, prejudice or partiality.
- (c) Private Consultation. The mediator may communicate privately with any participant during the conference. However, there shall be no ex parte communication before or outside the conference between the mediator and any counsel or party on any matter touching the proceeding, except with regard to scheduling matters. Nothing in this Rule prevents the mediator from engaging in ex parte communications, with the consent of the parties, for the purpose of assisting settlement negotiations.
- (d) Declaring Impasse. It is the duty of the mediator to determine in a timely manner that an impasse exists and that the conference should end. The mediator shall inquire of and consider the desires of the parties to cease or continue the conference.
- (e) Reporting Results of Conference. In accordance with the North Carolina Supreme Court Rules, the mediator file a Report of Mediator in Family Financial Case (AOC-CV-827) within ten (10) days of the completion of the conference, stating whether an agreement was reached by the parties. If the case is settled or otherwise disposed of prior to the conference, the mediator shall file the report indicating the disposition of the case, the person who informed the mediator that settlement had been reached, and the person who will present final documents to the Court.

If an agreement was reached at the conference, the report shall state whether the action will be concluded by consent judgment or voluntary dismissal and shall identify the persons designated to file such consent judgment or dismissals. If partial agreements are reached at the conference, the report shall state what issues remain for trial. The mediator's report shall inform the Court which parties attended the mediated settlement conference. Mediators who fail to report as required pursuant to this Rule shall be subject to the contempt powers of the Court and sanctions.

- (f) Scheduling and Holding the Conference. The mediator and the parties, along with the parties' legal counsel if represented, shall schedule the conference and conduct it prior to the conference completion deadline set out in the Court's order. The mediator shall make an effort to schedule the conference at a time that is convenient with all participants. In the absence of agreement, the mediator shall select a date and time for the conference. Deadlines for completion of the conference shall be strictly observed by the mediator and the parties, along with their legal counsel if represented, unless changed by written order of the Court.

12.17 Compensation of the Mediator and Sanctions.

- (a) By Agreement. When the mediator is selected by agreement of the parties, compensation shall be as agreed upon between the parties and the mediator and which shall be stated in the Scheduling and Discovery Order.
- (b) By Court Order. When the mediator is appointed by the Court, the parties shall compensate the mediator for mediation services at the hourly rate then in effect for FFS Certified Mediators. The parties shall also pay to the mediator a one-time per case administrative fee (at the rate then in effect for FFS Certified Mediators), which accrues upon appointment and shall be paid if the case settles prior to the mediated settlement conference or if the Court approves the substitution of a mediator selected by the parties for a Court-appointed mediator.
- (c) Payment of Compensation by the Parties. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court, the mediator's fee shall be paid in equal shares by the parties. Payment shall be due and payable upon completion of the conference or as otherwise required by the mediator and agreed by the parties.
- (d) Inability to Pay. No party found by the Court to be unable to pay a full share of a mediator's fee shall be required to pay a full share. Any party required to pay a share of a mediator fee pursuant to Rule 12.17(b) and (c) herein may move the Court to pay according to the Court's determination of that party's ability to pay. This motion shall be submitted on AOC-CV-828.

The party filing such a motion shall schedule the matter for hearing pursuant to Rule 3 herein. In ruling on such motions, the assigned Judge may consider the income and assets of the moving party and the outcome of the action. The Court shall enter an order granting or denying the party's motion. In so ordering, the Court may require one or more shares be paid out of the marital estate. Any mediator conducting a settlement conference shall accept as payment in full of a party's share of the mediator's fee that portion paid by or on behalf of the party pursuant to an order of the Court.

- (e) Postponement Fees. As used herein, the term "postponement" shall mean rescheduling or not proceeding with a settlement conference once a date for the settlement conference has been scheduled by the mediator. After a settlement conference has been scheduled for a specific date, a party may postpone the conference only in accordance with Rule 7 of the Family Financial Settlement (FFS) Rules. A conference may be postponed only after notice to all parties of the reason for the postponement, payment to the mediator of a postponement fee as provided in the FFS Rules or as agreed when the mediator is selected, and consent of the mediator and the opposing party. Postponement fees shall be paid by the party requesting the postponement unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. Postponement fees are in addition to the one-time per case administrative fee provided for in Rule 12.17(b).
- (f) Sanctions for Failure to Pay Mediator's Fee. Willful failure of a party to make timely payment of that party's share of the mediator's fee (whether the one-time per case administrative fee, the hourly fee for mediation services, or any postponement fee) shall subject that party to the contempt powers of the Court.

12.18 Mediator Certification and Decertification. In order to be a certified mediator pursuant to these Rules, an individual shall be qualified in accordance with Rule 8 of the Rules of the North Carolina Supreme Court for Settlement Procedures in District Court Family Financial Cases.

12.19 Other ADR Procedures. Upon receipt of a motion by the parties seeking authorization to utilize an ADR procedure in lieu of a mediated settlement conference, the Court may order the use of those procedures listed in subsections (a) or (b) below, unless the Court finds the parties did not agree upon the procedure to be utilized, the neutral person to conduct it, the neutral person's compensation, or the procedure selected is not appropriate for the case or the parties. In addition to mediated settlement conferences, the following ADR procedures are authorized by these Rules:

- (a) Neutral Evaluation (see Rule 12.21 herein) wherein a neutral person (evaluator) offers an advisory evaluation of the case following summary presentations by each party.
- (b) Arbitration wherein the parties agree to arbitrate under the Family Law Arbitration Act (N.C.G.S. §50-41et seq.) pursuant to Rule 13 of these Rules, which shall constitute good cause for the Court to dispense with ADR procedures authorized by these Rules.

12.20 General Rules Applicable to Other ADR Procedures. The same general rules governing when a proceeding is conducted, extensions of time, where the procedure is to be conducted, delay, inadmissibility of proceedings, records, ex parte communications, duties of the parties, sanctions, selection of the evaluator, disqualification of the evaluator, compensation and authority and duties of the evaluator shall apply to other ADR procedures as set forth herein for mediation.

12.21 Rules for Neutral Evaluation. Neutral evaluation is an informal, abbreviated presentation of facts and issues by the parties to an evaluator at an early stage of the case. The neutral evaluator is responsible for evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case, providing a candid assessment of the merits of the case, settlement value, and a dollar value or range of potential awards if the case proceeds to trial. The evaluator is also responsible for identifying areas of agreement and disagreement and suggesting necessary and appropriate discovery.

- (a) Pre-Conference Submissions. No later than twenty (20) days prior to the date established for the neutral evaluation conference, each party shall furnish the evaluator with written information about the case and shall, at the same time, certify to the evaluator that the party has served a copy of such summary on all other parties to the case. The information provided to the evaluator and the other parties shall be a summary of the significant facts and issues in the party's case and shall have attached to it copies of any documents supporting the party's summary. Information provided to the evaluator and to the other parties pursuant to this paragraph shall not be filed with the Clerk.
- (b) Replies to Pre-Conference Submissions. No later than ten (10) days prior to the date established for the neutral evaluation conference, any party may, but is not required to, send additional written information to the evaluator responding to the submission of an opposing party. The response furnished to the evaluator shall be served on all other parties, and the party sending the response shall certify service to the evaluator, but this response shall not be filed with the Clerk.

- (c) Conference Procedures. Prior to a neutral evaluation conference, the evaluator may request additional written information from any party. At the conference, the evaluator may address questions to the parties and give them an opportunity to complete their summaries with a brief oral statement.
- (d) Modification of Procedure. Subject to approval of the evaluator, the parties may agree to modify the procedures required by these Rules for neutral evaluation.
- (e) Evaluator's Duties.
 - (1) Evaluator's Opening Statement. At the beginning of the conference the evaluator shall define and describe the following points to the parties:
 - i. The process of the proceeding;
 - ii. The differences between the proceeding and other forms of conflict resolution (i.e., that the neutral evaluation conference is not a trial, the evaluator is not a Judge, the evaluator's opinions are not binding on any party, and the parties retain their right to trial if they do not reach a settlement);
 - iii. The costs of the proceeding;
 - iv. The fact that any settlement reached will be only by mutual consent of the parties;
 - v. The inadmissibility of conduct and statements made during the conference in any subsequent Court proceedings; and
 - vi. The duties and responsibilities of the evaluator and the participants.
 - (2) Oral Report to Parties by Evaluator. In addition to the written report to the Court required by these Rules, at the conclusion of the neutral evaluation conference, the evaluator orally shall advise the parties of the evaluator's opinion of the case. Such opinion shall include a candid assessment of the merits of the case, estimated settlement value, and the strengths and weaknesses of each party's claims if the case proceeds to trial. The oral report shall also contain a suggested settlement or disposition of the case and the reason(s) therefore. The evaluator shall not reduce his or her oral report to writing and shall not inform the Court thereof.
 - (3) Report of Evaluator to Court. Within ten (10) days after the completion of the neutral evaluation conference, the evaluator shall file a completed

Report of Neutral Conducting Settlement Procedure Other Than Mediated Settlement Conference in Family Financial Case (AOC-CV-834) stating when and where the conference was held, the names of those persons who attended the conference, whether or not an agreement was reached by the parties and, if an agreement was reached, the name of the person designated to file judgments or dismissals concluding the action.

- (f) Evaluator's Authority to Assist Negotiations. If all parties at the neutral evaluation conference request and agree, the evaluator may assist the parties in settlement discussions. If the parties do not reach a settlement during such discussions, the evaluator shall complete the neutral evaluation conference and file a written report to the Court as if such settlement discussions had not occurred. If the parties reach agreement at the conference, they shall reduce their agreement to writing.

12.22 Judicial Settlement Conference. Upon motion, the parties may request or, in his or her discretion, the assigned Judge may require the parties to participate in a judicial settlement conference at any point prior to trial but after the parties have been unsuccessful in reaching a settlement through equitable distribution mediation.

- (a) Settlement Judge. The assigned Judge shall not be the settlement conference Judge. The settlement conference Judge shall be selected by the assigned Judge and must agree to participate in the judicial settlement conference.
- (b) Conducting the Conference. The form and manner of conducting the conference shall be in the discretion of the settlement conference Judge. The settlement conference Judge may not impose a settlement on the parties but instead assist them in reaching a resolution of all claims.
- (c) Confidential Nature of the Conference. The judicial settlement conference shall be conducted in private. No stenographic or other record may be made of the conference. Only the parties and their counsel may attend. Any communications made during the conference may not be used in any Court proceeding or communicated to the assigned Judge. The settlement Judge may report that a settlement conference was reached and the settlement shall be reduced to writing before leaving the conference.
- (d) Report of the Judge. Within ten (10) days after the completion of the judicial settlement conference, the settlement conference Judge shall file a written report with the Court using the Report of Neutral Conducting Settlement Procedure Other Than Mediated Settlement Conference in Family Financial Case (AOC-CV-834), stating when and where the conference was held, the names of the persons in attendance, whether an agreement was reached, and the name of the person designated to file judgments or dismissals concluding the action.

12.23 In-Court Mediation. The Wake County Family Court offers voluntary, in-court mediated settlement conferences when volunteer mediators are available. This service is provided without charge to the participants and is intended to benefit pro se litigants who have cases scheduled for hearing on the daily court calendar. Claims eligible for in-court mediation include, but are not necessarily limited to: temporary or permanent child custody; temporary or permanent child support; postseparation support or alimony; and contempt proceedings.

Claims which do not appear on the daily court calendar may not be mediated absent the approval of the District Court Judge presiding. Cases shall be assigned to the acting volunteer mediator in the discretion of the District Court Judge presiding.

- (a) In-court mediated settlement conferences shall be conducted according to the rules set forth by the North Carolina Supreme Court Rules for Settlement Procedures in District Court Family Financial Cases, which can be found at <https://www.nccourts.gov/courts/supreme-court/court-rules>.
- (b) All conduct and written and oral communications made during the mediation session shall be considered settlement negotiations and shall not be admissible in any hearing, trial, or other court proceeding.
- (c) Each party shall have the right to secure separate legal counsel at any time during the process. The mediator cannot and will not provide legal advice.
- (d) Any party may withdraw from the settlement conference at any time.
- (e) Except as provided in the NC Supreme Court Rules referenced above, all notes, communications and work product of the mediator are confidential and the parties expressly waive the right to subpoena the mediator to testify and/or produce documents in any action in the case being mediated. The mediator must disclose otherwise confidential information where required by law, for example, when the mediator suspects child abuse or neglect or when information suggests an actual or potential threat to life or safety.
- (f) The parties shall hold the mediator harmless and without legal and/or financial responsibility to either of them.
- (g) The parties shall sign an “In-Court Agreement to Mediate” (WAKE-DOM-30).
- (h) In the event that the parties reach an agreement on some or all of the matters addressed in the mediation process, the mediator may assist the parties in memorializing their agreement by preparing a Mediation Summary (AOC-DRC-18) or other such documents as may be authorized by the District Court Judge presiding.

12.24 In-Court Mediators. All mediators who participate in the Wake County In-Court Mediation program shall be certified in accordance with Rule 8 of the Rules of the North Carolina Supreme Court Rules for Settlement Procedures in District Court Family Financial Cases or approved by the Lead Family Court Judge. Before assuming responsibility to mediate any case, each volunteer mediator shall conduct sufficient record checks to ensure that a conflict of interest does not exist with respect to all parties to the prospective mediation. During an in-court mediation, the mediator shall be bound by Rules 12.16(a), (b), and (d) hereinabove.

RULE 13: ARBITRATION, REFERENCE, PARENTING COORDINATORS AND COLLABORATIVE LAW

13.1 Arbitration. Arbitration of family law cases is available upon consent of the parties under the Family Law Arbitration Act as set forth in N.C.G.S. §50-41 et seq. Issues which can be heard in District Court (custody, child support, alimony, postseparation support, equitable distribution, attorney’s fees) may also be arbitrated, often with a savings of time and money. The consent order for arbitration shall state, at a minimum, the particular issue that is designated for arbitration and name the arbitrator; the remaining issues (such as rules, deadlines, notices and documents required) can be resolved between the parties, their attorneys and the arbitrator. In the consent order for arbitration, the parties may suspend these Rules or otherwise stay the action pursuant to N.C.G.S. §50-43(d) while the arbitration is in progress.

13.2 Referee. Rule 53 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure may be useful in the appointment of a referee in equitable distribution cases. Rule 53(a)(2) states that a referee may be appointed:

- (a) Where the trial of an issue requires the examination of a long or complicated account; in which case the referee may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein.
- (b) Where the taking of an account is necessary for the information of the Court before judgment, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect.”

Appointment of a referee is also available by consent under Rule 53(a)(1) of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. This procedure can save time and money in the scheduling and trial of property division cases.

13.3 Parenting Coordinators.

- (a) General:
 - (1) A Judge may appoint a parenting coordinator at any time at the entry of or after the entry of a temporary or permanent custody order, other than an ex parte order, or upon entry of a contempt order involving a custody issue, pursuant to any of the following:

- All parties consent to the appointment and the scope of the parenting coordinator's authority.
- Upon the motion of a party requesting the appointment of a parenting coordinator.
- Upon the Court's own motion.

- (2) A Judge may appoint a parenting coordinator without the consent of the parties only if the Court makes findings the action is a high-conflict action, the appointment is in the best interests of the child, and the parties have the ability to pay the costs of the parent coordinator. The Court shall not enter an order appointing a parenting coordinator or conduct an appointment conference prior to the entry of a custody order.
- (3) Before appointing a parenting coordinator, an Order Appointing Parenting Coordinator (WAKE-DOM-24) shall be entered, setting forth the terms of the appointment and duties of the parenting coordinator.
- (4) If the parties consent to the appointment of a selected parenting coordinator, the appointment order must acknowledge that the parenting coordinator has agreed to the appointment. Before selecting a parenting coordinator for a family, the Court must contact the parenting coordinator to confirm that he or she agrees to the appointment.
- (5) Parenting coordinators should be chosen from a list maintained by the Wake County District Court Family Court Office and must meet and maintain those qualifications listed in N.C.G.S §50-93 (WAKE-DOM-25).

(b) Roles of the Parenting Coordinator

- (1) The authority of a parenting coordinator shall be specified in the Order Appointing Parenting Coordinator (WAKE-DOM-24) and shall be limited to the matters which will aid the parties in complying with the court's custody order, resolving disputes regarding issues that were not specifically addressed in the custody order, or ambiguous or conflicting terms in the custody order.
- (2) The parenting coordinator shall decide any issue within the scope of the parenting coordinator's authority, and the decision shall be enforceable as an order of the court. The decision shall be in writing and provided to the parties and their attorneys. A decision of the parenting coordinator shall remain binding, even after the expiration of that coordinator's term, unless the decision is modified by the parenting coordinator, a subsequent parenting coordinator, or the court.

- (3) Any party or attorney for the party may file a motion for the court to review a parenting coordinator's decision. The motion must put the parties on notice of the specific decision for which review is sought. The motion shall be served on both parties and the parenting coordinator. The attorney for the moving party/moving party shall cause a subpoena to be issued for the parent coordinator's attendance at the review hearing and shall consult with the Parent Coordinator in advance regarding his/her availability to appear prior to issuing the subpoena. Only the presiding judge shall issue a subpoena to compel production of the parenting coordinator's records. If any party applies to the judge for issuance of a subpoena to produce records, they must provide at least 10 days' notice to the parenting coordinator and all parties so that any objection may be considered. The Court shall have the authority to apportion the parenting coordinator's fees for appearing at the review hearing. The review hearing shall be scheduled in accordance with Rule 3 herein and notice of the hearing shall comply with the N.C. Rules of Civil Procedure. Any party/attorney issuing a subpoena to the Parent Coordinator for his/her appearance at any other hearing shall consult with the Parent Coordinator prior to issuing the subpoena regarding the Parent Coordinator's availability to appear.
- (4) The parenting coordinator may file a report with the court pursuant to §50-97(a). If the verified report alleges non-compliance of the parenting coordinator's decision or court order or failure to pay the parenting coordinator's fees, the court may issue an Order to Show Cause. If a report is filed and there is no Order to Show Cause issued, an expedited hearing shall be granted and occur within four (4) weeks of the filing unless the parenting coordinator requests a longer length of time. The hearing on said report shall be heard by the assigned Judge or the judge in the Overflow Courtroom. A hearing on the parenting coordinator's report to court shall be limited to one (1) hour, unless good cause is shown for additional time.
- (c) Appointment Conference. The parties, their attorneys, and the proposed parenting coordinator must all attend the appointment conference. However, no appointment conference is required if (i) the parenting coordinator's term is later extended, (ii) a subsequent parenting coordinator is appointed in the same matter, or (iii) the parties, their attorneys, and the proposed parenting coordinator consent to a waiver of the appointment conference by signing the proposed appointment order. The court shall not enter an order appointing a parenting coordinator or conduct an appointment conference unless a custody order has already been entered or is being simultaneously entered. At the time of the appointment conference, the court shall do all of the following:

- (1) Explain to the parties the parenting coordinator's role, authority, and responsibilities as specified in the appointment order and any agreement entered into by the parties.
 - (2) Determine financial arrangements for the parenting coordinator's fee to be paid by each party and authorize the parenting coordinator to charge any party separately for individual contacts made necessary by that party's behavior.
 - (3) Inform the parties, their attorneys, and the parenting coordinator of the rules regarding communications among them and with the court.
 - (4) Enter the appointment order if the order has not yet been entered.
- (d) Fees and Expenses. The parenting coordinator shall be entitled to reasonable compensation from the parties for services rendered and to a reasonable retainer as required in their contracts. The parenting coordinator may request a hearing in the event of a fee dispute. If a dispute arises regarding the payment of fees or the retainer, the parenting coordinator may file a fee report and request a hearing. If a party disputes the parenting coordinator's fees or the allocation of those fees, the party may file a motion with the court requesting that the court review the fees. The Wake County Family Court retains jurisdiction to resolve disputes regarding the parenting coordinator's fees after the conclusion of the parenting coordinator's term so long as the parenting coordinator's fee report was filed in a timely manner.
- (e) Termination or Modification of Appointment of Parenting Coordinator. For good cause shown, the court may terminate or modify the parenting coordinator appointment upon motion of any party, upon the agreement of the parties, or by the court on its own motion. For good cause shown, the court may modify or terminate the parenting coordinator's appointment upon request of the parenting coordinator as set forth in G.S. 50-97(a)(5). For purposes of termination or modification of the parenting coordinator's appointment, good cause may include, but is not limited to, any of the following:
- (1) The lack of reasonable progress.
 - (2) A determination that the parties no longer need the assistance of a parenting coordinator.

- (3) Impairment on the part of a party that significantly interferes with the party's participation in the process.
- (4) The inability or unwillingness of the parenting coordinator to continue to serve.

13.4 Collaborative Family Law. Collaborative Family Law is also available upon the consent of the parties. Under N.C.G.S. §50-70 et seq., Collaborative Family Law is a procedure in which the parties and their counsel agree in writing to use their best efforts and to make a good faith attempt to resolve all issues affecting the dissolution of the marriage by agreement and without judicial intervention except to have the Court approve the settlement agreement, make the necessary legal pronouncements, and sign the orders which may be required by law to effectuate the agreement of the parties. When the parties consent to Collaborative Family Law, the following conditions shall apply:

- (a) The parties' collaborative counsel may not serve as litigation counsel except to ask the Court to approve the settlement agreement(s) and/or enter orders necessary to effectuate the parties' agreement.
- (b) The confidentiality of statements made during collaborative law conferences and other procedures shall be recognized by the Court, and all verbal or written communications or work product among the parties, their attorneys and any third party experts utilized pursuant to the collaborative law agreement are absolutely privileged and inadmissible in Court.
- (c) To the extent the Court finds issues are being reasonably addressed in a collaborative law process, the Court may extend the filing deadlines for discovery and mediation as set forth in these Rules.

RULE 14: MOTIONS TO CONTINUE

14.1 Scheduling Hearings. In scheduling hearings, both parties and/or their counsel are expected to work with the assigned FCCC in calendaring matters within the Family Court Time Standards and in such a way as to avoid conflicts with other scheduled hearings, personal commitments (such as doctor's appointments, family obligations, etc.), designated secured leave, and other already scheduled matters. Further, both parties and/or their counsel are encouraged to make every attempt to work together to resolve any scheduling conflicts which may arise while still keeping within the established time standards. Scheduling conflicts should be resolved in accordance with Rule 3.1 of the General Rules of Practice and any Local Administrative Orders designating priorities of cases.

14.2 Form of Motions. All Motions to Continue shall be filed, and the Rules and procedures below shall apply. Except as provided herein for oral motions, a Motion to Continue (WAKE-DOM-20A) shall be in writing and shall contain the following information:

- (a) Caption and file number of the case;
- (b) All issues pending for hearing and the term and/or date for which the case is set;
- (c) Reason for the request to continue. When a conflict in another Court is the reason for continuance, the request must state the case number, the Court in which the other case is pending, the issue set for hearing in the other Court; and the date when the matter in the other Court was set;
- (d) The number of times the case has previously been continued;
- (e) A statement that all opposing counsel and/or parties have been sent a copy of the request, and, if known, whether opposing counsel objects to the continuance.

Oral motions to continue may be made when the reason for the continuance is the result of an illness, death, no service on opposing party, when an attorney was recently retained or for any other reason determined by the Court to be reasonable.

14.3 Time Limits and Service of Motions. The Motion to Continue shall be filed with the Clerk along with a copy of the proposed Order (WAKE-DOM-20C). The Motion to Continue shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday of the week prior to the week in which the hearing is calendared. The moving party shall ensure proper service upon all parties and/or opposing counsel in a manner designed to give notice as expeditiously as possible. In addition, the moving party shall contact the opposing party/counsel by telephone, facsimile and/or e-mail to inform him/her of the filing of a motion to continue. Any objection (WAKE-DOM-20B) must be filed and served upon the movant no later than two (2) business days after filing the request for continuance, unless time does not allow. If the parties attach a Submission Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-22), the assigned Judge may rule upon the motion without a hearing, and the assigned FCCC shall communicate the Judge's decision on the motion to the parties and/or counsel in a manner designed to give notice as expeditiously as possible. It is in the discretion of the Judge whether to require a hearing on the motion.

14.4 Case Management and Continuances. When a case is continued or the Court is not able to reach the case during a court session, when required by the assigned Judge, an Order of Continuance shall be entered on or before the day of the originally scheduled court hearing. If the Order of Continuance is not entered on that day, then the parties and/or the attorneys shall have ten (10) days in which to calendar the case for hearing on all claims which were continued or not reached, and the party(ies) whose claim(s) was continued shall be responsible for assuring the matter(s) is re-calendared. If the parties fail to timely calendar the case for hearing, then the FCCC shall schedule the claim(s) for hearing and provide a Notice of Hearing or Continuance Order to all parties and/or the attorneys.

RULE 15: REQUESTS FOR PEREMPTORY SETTINGS

Requests for peremptory settings for cases involving a party or an essential witness who must travel long distances, have numerous expert witnesses or where other extraordinary reasons for such a request exist must be ruled upon by the assigned Judge. All matters which are scheduled before this Court are important to the parties and/or children involved and a peremptory setting shall be granted only for good cause and compelling reasons.

Requests for a Peremptory Setting (WAKE-DOM-21A) and the proposed Order for Peremptory Setting (WAKE-DOM-21B) must be in writing and a copy thereof must be served upon the opposing party. No Request for a Peremptory Setting shall be submitted prior to consultation with the opposing party. The consent, or lack thereof, of the opposing party shall be noted on the request form. Requests for a Peremptory Setting shall set out the issues to be heard and indicate with specificity the reasons for the request. The request shall be filed with the Clerk. The Judge's decision shall be promptly transmitted to the moving party by the FCCC. The moving party shall then notify the opposing party immediately. The assigned Judge may set a case peremptorily on his/her own motion. Once a peremptory setting has occurred, the designation shall be immediately added to the trial calendar and parties notified.

RULE 16: SETTLEMENTS

Pursuant to Rule 2(g) of the General Rules of Practice for Superior and District Courts, when a case is settled, the Family Financial Mediator, or in the case of settlements reached without mediation, all attorneys of record, must notify the assigned FCCC within twenty-four (24) hours of the settlement and advise who will prepare and file the order or judgment and/or any voluntary dismissals of pending claims (in cases where settlements are in the form of a contract) and the date by which the order or judgment or dismissal(s) will be submitted to the assigned Judge.

Cases will not be removed from the trial calendar or custody mediation requirements until a copy of a consent order, Memorandum of Judgment/Order (AOC-CV-220), or dismissal is filed and entered by the assigned Judge. Parties are encouraged to engage in settlement discussions at every opportunity. Family Court recognizes the importance to the family of bringing closure to these disputes, of minimizing misunderstandings which frequently occur when resolutions are not yet committed to writing, and the Court's responsibility to assist the parties in resolving these disputes. Unless a consent order has been signed by the parties and file (or filed if pro se), or a dismissal is filed (or filed if pro se), prior to the time of the court date, pro se litigants and counsel are required to appear at calendar call as scheduled; however, the assigned Judge may agree to hold the matter open to a date certain for submission of the settlement documents or dismissal(s). If the settlement documents or dismissal(s) are not filed prior to the date certain agreed upon by the parties, then the pro se litigants and counsel shall appear before the assigned Judge on that date.

If any domestic case is resolved by a non-judicial disposition (i.e., separation agreement/property settlement, other contract, or a party decides not to pursue a Court action), a Notice of Voluntary Dismissal (AOC-CV-405) must be timely filed in order to close the Court file. The attorney, or the pro se litigant, who files a dismissal must promptly notify the FCCC via email by providing a copy of the dismissal to the FCCC.

RULE 17: SUBMISSION OF ORDERS OR JUDGMENTS

17.1 Preparation and Time Limits. Unless otherwise agreed by counsel for the parties or otherwise ordered by the Court, orders and judgments shall be prepared by the prevailing party. The prevailing party shall submit a draft of the proposed order/judgment to the opposing counsel (or the opposing party if pro se) in Microsoft Word or other editable format no later than twenty (20) days after a ruling is announced in open Court or otherwise communicated to the parties. If a party fails to appear at the hearing of the matter in which a proposed order is due to be filed with the Clerk, the Judge may treat the failure to appear as a waiver of the attorney's or party's right to review the proposed order. The opposing party shall make written response using the "track changes" feature to the drafting party of any objections, modifications or additions to the proposed order/judgments within five (5) days from the date the proposed order/judgment is delivered. All orders and judgments shall be captioned in such a way as to clearly designate all issues being adjudicated.

17.2 No Communication from Opposing Party. If no disagreement or difference is communicated to the person who prepared the proposed order, the order shall be submitted to the assigned Judge for signature via filing after five (5) days have passed since delivery to the opposing party. The party submitting the order must fully complete and sign a Submission Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-22) and attach it to the submitted order. No order shall be filed for submission to the assigned Judge before the five (5) days have expired since delivery to the opposing party, unless instructed by the Court.

17.3 Full Agreement on Contents of Order. If the parties agree on a proposed order, the proposed order shall be filed for submission to the assigned Judge for entry. The party submitting the order must fully complete and sign the Submission Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-22), attach it to the submitted order, and file same.

17.4 Disagreement on Contents of Order. In the event that the parties disagree about the terms of the order, the following shall be submitted to the Court for review via email to the assigned Judge's FCCC :

- (a) A Microsoft Word or other editable version of the order as proposed by the attorney charged with preparing the order;
- (b) A Microsoft Word or other editable version of the order outlining opposing counsel's proposed changes "tracked"; and
- (c) Optional submission: letters setting out the disputed issues.

The party submitting the order must fully complete and sign the Submission Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-22), attach it to the submitted orders and file. The Judge shall resolve the disputed issue(s) based upon these written submissions or may set the matter on his/her calendar for an order entry conference to resolve the dispute.

17.5 Sanctions. Non-compliance with any section of this Rule may result in the imposition of sanctions or penalties as deemed appropriate and as allowed by law.

17.6 Exhibits.

- (a) Exhibits shall be pre-marked with appropriate stickers with sequential numbers or alphabetic identification. A list of all exhibits in sequential order shall be provided to the courtroom clerk at the beginning of the hearing or trial. If publication of hard copies to the Judge and/or jury is intended, attorneys and pro se parties shall provide a sufficient number of copies of exhibits for use by the Judge and/or jury.
- (b) Absent a finding of good cause, all exhibits admitted into evidence during a trial shall be returned to the attorney of record who tendered the exhibits into evidence, and he or she shall maintain these exhibits pending any period of appeal. If only one party is represented by an attorney, that attorney shall maintain all exhibits pending any period of appeal. If all parties are appearing pro se, then the Judge shall, in his or discretion, determine what exhibits shall be returned to the parties and what exhibits shall be maintained by the Court.
- (c) Exhibits shall be redacted of all but the last four (4) digits of any identifying information, which includes, but is not limited to:
 - (1) Social security numbers
 - (2) Taxpayer identification numbers
 - (3) Driver's license numbers
 - (4) State identification numbers
 - (5) Passport numbers
 - (6) Financial (checking, savings, investment) account numbers

(7) Credit or debit card numbers

(8) Personal identification numbers (PIN) and passwords

However, if the exhibit is to be maintained by an attorney following a hearing, the exhibit does not have to be redacted as provided herein. The Order shall include language in the decree documenting the disposition of the exhibits if the exhibits are not to be maintained by the Clerk.

17.7 Orders Which Resolve Issues from Multiple Cases. Even if multiple cases have been consolidated for hearing, an original of the order signed by the assigned Judge should be entered in each case file, and the caption should include all file numbers.

17.8 Captions in Orders. The caption in each Order shall indicate what issue(s) is(are) resolved by the Order.

RULE 18: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ACTIONS (CHAPTER 50B)

18.1 Filing and Hearing. All orders filed under Chapter 50B and all complaints, motions and other pleadings shall use the standard forms authorized by the AOC and available from the Clerk. When a Chapter 50B Domestic Violence action is filed, or when a motion is filed concerning the enforcement, modification, or renewal of a domestic violence protection order, and there is no existing civil action filed pursuant to Chapter 50 between the parties, the hearing of the matter shall be scheduled at sessions established specifically for the hearing of civil domestic violence matters. If there is an existing Chapter 50 case between the parties, the 50B matter shall be set as outlined in Rule 18.4 below.

18.2 Length of Hearing. Hearings on domestic violence in Courtroom 5A/5B shall be limited to a total of one (1) hour (30 minutes maximum for each side), unless the presiding Judge in his or her discretion determines additional time should be allowed when there is also a pending claim for temporary custody pursuant to Chapter 50B. Hearings conducted in Domestic Court on whether a year-long Domestic Violence Protective Order [“DVPO”] shall issue shall be calendared for one (1) hour unless a party notifies the assigned FCCC additional time is needed. Once the domestic violence hearing is on the assigned Judge’s calendar, if a party seeks additional time, he/she must contact the assigned FCCC in writing (including email, facsimile) contemporaneous with filing a Calendar Request (WAKE-DOM-04) and Notice of Hearing, along with providing proper delivery of the calendar request and notice to the opposing party. If the assigned Judge approves the request, the FCCC will notify both parties and will adjust the anticipated time required. In any event, timely notice of the change must be provided to the opposing party (pro se litigant or attorney).

18.3 Consent DVPO Orders. No consent DVPO shall be entered, except as authorized by statute and caselaw.

18.4 Previously Pending Chapter 50 Actions. When an action has been filed under Chapter 50 and a subsequent action is filed under Chapter 50B, the presiding Judge hearing the 50B ex parte matter (or the courtroom clerk) shall contact the Family Court Office to determine the name of the assigned Judge, if any. If a Judge has been assigned to a pending domestic action involving the same parties and an ex parte 50B order is entered, the domestic violence Clerk shall contact the assigned Judge's FCCC so that the 10-day hearing will be scheduled, if possible, before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. If the assigned Judge is presiding in a domestic courtroom at the time of the 10-day return hearing, then the matter must be scheduled in front of the assigned Judge. In the event it cannot be set before the assigned Judge within ten (10) days, it shall be set as any other domestic violence 10-day hearing. If a Judge has been assigned to a pending domestic action involving the same parties and the domestic violence complaint is set for hearing but no ex parte 50B order is entered, the domestic violence Clerk shall contact the assigned Judge's FCCC to schedule the hearing before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. The FCCC must add the hearing to the assigned Judge's calendar to be heard within a reasonable time. The only issues to be heard shall be those raised in the Chapter 50B action.

Any DVPO complaint filed under Chapter 50B which is scheduled before the assigned Judge may, in the discretion of the assigned Judge, be sent to an overflow judge in the Overflow Courtroom. Once a case is calendared for a Domestic Violence hearing before the assigned Judge, all future hearings in the matter, including continuances or subsequent motions, shall be set before the assigned Judge or a judge assigned to the domestic Overflow Courtroom.

18.4A Chapter 50 Actions Filed After Chapter 50B Action. When an action seeking a DVPO is filed, and prior to the hearing on this Complaint, a subsequent Chapter 50 action involving the same parties is filed to which a Judge has been assigned, the hearing on the DVPO Complaint will be scheduled, if possible, before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. If the assigned Judge is presiding in a domestic courtroom at the time of the scheduled hearing on the DV Complaint (either the 10-day return hearing if an ex parte 50B order was entered, or the hearing on the merits if no ex parte 50B order was entered), then the matter should be heard by the assigned Judge. In the event the hearing cannot be set before the assigned Judge within the statutory time frame, it shall be set in 5A as any other domestic violence hearing.

Any DVPO complaint filed under Chapter 50B that is scheduled before the assigned Judge may, in the discretion of the assigned Judge, be sent to an overflow judge in the overflow courtroom. Once a case is calendared for a Domestic Violence hearing before the assigned Judge, all future hearings in the matter, including continuances or subsequent motions, will be set before the assigned judge or a judge assigned to the domestic Overflow Courtroom.

Before a DVPO hearing commences in 5A, attorneys or pro se litigants must inform the Judge presiding in 5A if a Complaint asserting Chapter 50 claims has been filed such that the parties have an assigned Judge.

18.5 Requests for Custody Pursuant to Chapter 50B.

- (a) Consent Orders. No orders for custody will be entered, even by consent, unless a DVPO is entered. If there is no pending Chapter 50 action, and the parties, upon entry of a DVPO, consent to entry of a temporary order for custody, said Order may be entered by the Judge presiding in the Chapter 50B action. If there is an existing Chapter 50 action, a consent custody order shall be entered in the Chapter 50 action only by the assigned Judge.
- (b) Trial. Where custody is properly sought pursuant to Chapter 50B or such a determination is necessary to protect minor children and a protective order is being entered, the Judge shall first determine whether cause exists for entry of a DVPO prior to hearing issues relating to the matter of custody and the best interests of the minor children. Before making a temporary child custody determination, the Judge shall consider the factors set out in N.C.G.S. §50B-3. (See also WAKE-DOM-28).
- (c) Use of Custody Addendum. If either party has made a request for child custody in the domestic violence action, then the presiding Judge must complete and attach the Temporary Child Custody Addendum to Domestic Violence Protective Order (AOC-CV-306A) to the Domestic Violence Protective Order even if the Judge declines to award temporary child custody to either party. Any custody-related provisions (such as custody exchange locations, visitation schedules, visitation supervisors, etc.) must be specified on the Custody Addendum and not in the body of the DVPO.
- (d) Chapter 50 Custody Order Supersedes Chapter 50B Custody Order. If the presiding Judge awards temporary child custody as part of the DVPO, the custody addendum must provide the custody provisions terminate on a date certain. Pursuant to N.C.G.S. §50B-3(a1)(4), entry of a child custody order arising from a Chapter 50 action supersedes all provisions in the DVPO custody addendum.

18.6 Child Support and Spousal Support Provisions.

- (a) Determination of a Child or Spousal Support Obligation Pursuant to Chapter 50B. No order for child or spousal support shall be entered pursuant to Chapter 50B if there is a pre-existing claim pursuant to Chapter 50. If there is no Chapter 50 action pending, the Judge, in his or her discretion, may provide for the payment of child or spousal support pursuant to Chapter 50B. If such relief is granted, the Judge presiding over the 50B hearing may determine a specific child or spousal support amount or refer the parties to Child Support Services [“CSS”].
- (b) Subsequent Motions. If either party files a subsequent motion alleging violation or modification of the child or spousal support provisions of the 50B order, the party shall be referred to CSS or Wake Family Court, whichever is appropriate.

18.7 Orders to Show Cause. A motion for an order to show cause for alleged violations of a DVPO involving individuals who are parties to a domestic action filed pursuant to Chapter 50 shall be heard by the assigned Judge. The Judge presiding in the domestic violence civil courtroom shall review the motion for order to show cause. If an order to show cause is signed, the domestic violence Clerk shall contact the assigned Judge’s FCCC to schedule the hearing before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. The FCCC must add the hearing to the assigned Judge’s calendar to be heard within a reasonable time.

18.8 Motion to Modify or Renew Domestic Violence Protective Orders. The Judge presiding in the domestic violence civil courtroom may hear motions to modify or renew domestic violence protective orders which were entered by another Judge.

Motions to modify or renew a DVPO involving individuals who are parties to a domestic action filed pursuant to Chapter 50 shall be heard by the assigned Judge or an overflow judge assigned to the domestic Overflow Courtroom. Upon filing the motion, the domestic violence Clerk shall contact the assigned Judge’s FCCC to schedule the hearing before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. The FCCC must add the hearing to the assigned Judge’s calendar to be heard within a reasonable time.

18.9 Motion for Return of Weapons. A Motion for Return of Weapons in a DVPO action involving individuals who are parties to a domestic action filed pursuant to Chapter 50 shall be heard by the assigned Judge. Upon filing of the motion, the domestic violence Clerk shall contact the assigned Judge’s FCCC to schedule the hearing before the assigned Judge in Domestic Court. The FCCC must add the hearing to the assigned Judge’s calendar to be heard within a reasonable time. The assigned Judge may also send this motion to be heard in the Overflow Courtroom.

18.10 50C No Contact Orders. All orders filed under Chapter 50C and all complaints, motions and other pleadings shall use the standard forms authorized by the AOC and available from the Clerk. All 50C claims shall be heard in Courtroom 5A/5B, unless the assigned Judge involving one of the parties consents or requests that the 50C claim(s) be calendared on his/her Domestic Court calendar.

RULE 18A: RULE 60 MOTIONS

All Rule 60 motions shall be heard by the presiding Judge who heard the underlying claim(s) giving rise to the Rule 60 motion, unless the particular Judge is no longer presiding in Wake County District Court or is not available to hear the motion in a timely manner. If the Judge is no longer presiding in Wake County District Court or is not available to hear the motion in a timely manner, then any judge with authority under N.C.G.S. § 7A-192 can hear the motion.

RULE 19: SANCTIONS

Failure to comply with any section of these Rules subjects the parties and/or their counsel to sanctions as allowed by law and deemed appropriate at the discretion of the assigned Judge including, but not limited to: dismissal of any, or part of any, claim for relief; striking the pleadings; disallowance of evidence and/or testimony; a fine; and payment of costs and/or the opposing party's reasonable legal fees.

RULE 20: REQUESTING AUDIO RECORDING

Audio recordings are available from the Courtroom Clerk upon request. To obtain a copy of the audio recording, the person making the request must complete the Request for Duplicate Copy of Verbatim Audio Court Record (AOC-G-114). This form must be filled out in its entirety, including the Courtroom where the hearing was held, the date of the hearing, and the caption. This form is to be submitted online using the filing system.

RULE 21: SUBPOENAS

- (a) Subpoenas Submitted to Assigned Judge for Signature. Any subpoena which is submitted to the assigned Judge by a pro se litigant or an attorney will not be considered unless it is accompanied by a completed Submission Cover Sheet (WAKE-DOM-22) indicating: (1) the requesting pro se party/attorney has communicated with the opposing pro se party/attorney about the subpoena; (2) whether the opposing pro se party/attorney consents or objects to the assigned Judge signing the subpoena; and (3) a copy of the Submission Cover Sheet and all documents submitted to the assigned Judge have been sent to the opposing pro se party/attorney. A copy of the Order

Submission Sheet and the Subpoena sent to the assigned Judge must be delivered to the opposing pro se party/attorney by electronic mail or fax prior to the pro se party/attorney filing for the Judge's review. Subpoenas issued to persons residing out of state must comply with Rule 45(f). The assigned judge has discretionary authority to execute subpoenas pursuant to Rule 45 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and will not consider a request to sign a subpoena requesting documents which are statutorily or otherwise protected from disclosure such that an Order is required (e.g. healthcare records, substance abuse records).

- (b) Public Records or Healthcare Records Sought Pursuant to Rule 45(c)(2): The Trial Court Administrator shall be the designee to accept by registered mail or personal delivery certified copies of medical or public records pursuant to Rule 45(c) of the Rules of Civil Procedure. The Trial Court Administrator shall maintain these records until the records are released in accordance with a written order of the Court, or upon request from the assigned or presiding judge for use in court proceedings. No subpoena should direct the delivery of medical or public records to the Judge or to Family Court.
- (c) Child Protective Services Records. Any subpoena seeking records from Child Protective Services shall provide that the documents be delivered to the Wake County Trial Court Administrator at the office's current address. The Trial Court Administrator shall be the designee to accept Child Protective Services records and shall maintain such records until the records are released in accordance with a written order of the Court, or upon request from the assigned or presiding judge for use in court proceedings. If the records pertain to the children subject to a pending custody action, the parties shall, whenever possible, submit a consent protective order containing the signatures of all parties and the county attorney representing Child Protective Services. If the parties are unable to consent to a protective order, the matter shall be set for a hearing, well in advance of the custody hearing. Child Protective Services records shall not be released or reviewed prior to trial without a protective order signed by the Court.
- (d) Subpoenas Allowing Production of Documents to Court Prior to Trial. Except as set forth in subsection (b) and (c) above, no party or attorney shall issue a subpoena (or seek to have a subpoena issued) which allows for the production of records directly to the Court prior to the date of trial or hearing.
- (e) Destruction of Medical, Public, or Child Protective Services Records. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the Trial Court Administrator may destroy any medical, public or Child Protective services records that remain “unclaimed” for more than 90 days after the time for appealing the matter or issue for which the records were sought has expired. The Trial Court Administrator need not provide further notice to the parties of such destruction.

RULE 22: INTERPRETERS

- (a) Language and ASL Interpreters are available for all domestic hearings and court ordered custody mediation. Interpreters are not currently available for the volunteer in-court mediation program. Only certified interpreters or interpreters approved by the Office of Language Services are permitted to interpret for the court and all interpreters must be formally requested of the Office of Language Services by the Family Court office.
- (b) If a trial or hearing is scheduled to last more than 30 minutes, two interpreters will be requested for the hearing. If only one interpreter is available, that interpreter must receive a break every 30 minutes during the hearing.
- (c) If an interpreter is needed for either party or for a witness during a hearing, the moving party shall notify the FCCC and opposing counsel/party in writing that an interpreter is needed. If the moving party is not requesting an interpreter and is not aware that the non-moving party is requesting an interpreter, the non-moving party shall inform the FCCC and opposing counsel/party in writing that an interpreter is needed as soon as possible after service of the pleading or notice of hearing, whichever is first.
- (d) Only the FCCC shall make a request to the Office of Language Services. If a party needing an interpreter wishes to cancel a request for an interpreter due to settlement, continuance, or other reason, the parties shall notify the FCCC as soon as possible.
- (e) If an interpreter is engaged for and appears at a hearing and the party having requested such interpreter declines the use or need for such interpreter, the party may be prohibited from delaying or declining to proceed at future hearings where an interpreter is not present.
- (f) If an interpreter is engaged for a Language Other Than Spanish (LOTS), the court may refuse to accept a settlement agreement or grant a motion to continue unless the court is provided a signed settlement agreement or motion to continue at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. The attorney or party who requested the LOTS interpreter shall promptly notify the FCCC via email the case has settled (or a dismissal has been filed) at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled hearing.

The Domestic Family Court Advisory Committee shall meet as often as deemed necessary by the Chair but at least once per year at a date and site selected by the Chief District Court Judge. Meetings may be virtual or in person. Attorney representatives shall serve at the pleasure of the Chief District Court Judge.

Signed this ___ day of March, 2025, and effective April 1, 2025. SO ORDERED.
