4. Emergency Directive 9 issued on May 21, 2020 provides that "no session of court may be scheduled if doing so would result in members of the public sitting or standing in close proximity and/or for extended periods of time in contravention of current public health guidance."
5. The undersigned judge believes that this session of court may be conducted in conformity with Emergency Directive 9.
6. The undersigned Superior Court Judge has reviewed the calendar for the June 15, 2020 Session of Criminal Superior Court in Burke County and has conferred with representatives of the District Attorney's office.
7. This session is an Administrative session of criminal court to be conducted without a jury.
8. There are 8 defendants who have cases set for first appearances or who are unrepresented having previously waived counsel.
9. There are approximately 43 other defendants who have cases on this calendar.
10. There are numerous defendants who are in custody either in the Burke County jail or in some other State or local confinement facility. Defendants who are in custody in a facility operated by the State of North Carolina or another county may not be available by writ.

11. There are two defendants, Scott Hemphill and Brian Robinson who are co-defendants in a double homicide case. The undersigned judge has participated in numerous pretrial conferences in these two cases and anticipates handling any matters arising in these cases during this term of court.

Pursuant to the provisions of the orders entered by Chief Justice Cheri Beasley, it is hereby ordered for the purposes of the June 15, 2020 Criminal Calendar in Burke County that:

1. No calendar call will be held for this session of court.
2. The defendants, who are unrepresented or who have previously waived counsel, have been sent a letter to permit them to advise the Court of their preferences with respect to counsel. Any defendant who responds to this letter, will not be required to appear in open court.
3. Defendants, who fail to respond to this letter, shall appear in open court on June 15, 2020 at 10:00 on that date so that the Court can address matters related to the determination of the status of counsel.
4. If an attorney files a general appearance in any case on behalf of an unrepresented defendant prior to the beginning of this session of court, neither counsel nor the defendant will be required to appear in open court.
5. The District Attorney's office will contact defense counsel who represent other defendants who have cases on the calendar to schedule times for them and their clients to appear in open court to determine whether guilty pleas will be entered in those cases or whether bond or other matters need to be heard.
6. In cases where the defendant is incarcerated in the Burke County jail, it is anticipated that the matters involving in custody defendants will be heard utilizing the available video equipment to permit the defendant to participate remotely.
7. Justina Tate will contact counsel in the Hemphill and Robinson matters in an effort to schedule any proceedings in those cases on June 19, 2020.
8. Any defendant or attorney who believes that they have been exposed to COVID-19 shall contact Justina Tate at (828) 433-3216, the District Attorney's office or their attorney for further instructions prior to appearing in court.

This the ___ day of June 2020.
