

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF BURKE

IN THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE
SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION
20-R-_____

IN THE MATTER OF THE OPERATION
OF THE SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION
IN JUDICIAL DISTRICT 25-A

ORDER CONCERNING COURT
OPERATIONS FOR THE
SEPTEMBER 21, 2020 SESSION

This matter came on before Robert C. Ervin, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge, in the exercise of the Court's in chambers jurisdiction. The undersigned judge makes the following order subject to orders previously entered by Chief Justice Cheri Beasley of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

1. On March 13, 2020, Chief Justice Cheri Beasley entered an order pursuant to N. C. Gen. Stat. 7A-39(b)(2) determining that catastrophic conditions resulting from a public health threat posed by COVID-19 exist in all counties of this state.
2. On April 2, 2020, Chief Justice Cheri Beasley entered a second order pursuant to N. C. Gen. Stat. 7A-39(b)(2) determining that "catastrophic conditions resulting from the COVID-19 outbreak have existed and continue to exist in all counties of this state."
3. On May 21, 2020, Chief Justice Cheri Beasley entered a third order pursuant to N. C. Gen. Stat. 7A-39(b)(2) determining that "catastrophic conditions resulting from the COVID-19 outbreak have existed and continue to exist in all counties of this state."
4. Emergency Directive 9 issued on May 21, 2020 provides that "no session of court may be scheduled if doing so would result in members of the public sitting or standing in close proximity and/or for extended periods of time in contravention of current public health guidance."
5. The undersigned judge believes that this session of court may be conducted in conformity with Emergency Directive 9.
6. The undersigned Superior Court Judge has reviewed the case files for the September 21, 2020 Session of Criminal Superior Court in Burke County and has conferred with representatives of the District Attorney's office.
7. This session was scheduled as a trial session of criminal court.
8. There are 21 defendants who have cases set for first appearances.
9. There are 19 other defendants who have cases on this calendar.
10. There are defendants who are in custody either in the Burke County jail or in some other State or local confinement facility. Defendants who are in custody in a facility operated by the State of North Carolina or another county may not be available by writ.
11. There is a Motion for Appropriate Relief in the case of State v. Philip Blankenship that will also be heard during this term of court.

Pursuant to the provisions of the orders entered by Chief Justice Cheri Beasley, it is hereby ordered for the purposes of the September 21, 2020 Criminal Calendar in Burke County that:

1. No calendar call will be held for this session of court.
2. There will be no jury trials conducted during this session of court.
3. The defendants, who are unrepresented, have been sent a letter to permit them to advise the Court of their preferences with respect to counsel. Any defendant who responds to this letter, will not be required to appear in open court.
4. Defendants, who fail to respond to this letter, shall appear in open court on August 24, 2020 at the times set below so that the Court can address matters related to the determination of the status of counsel:

Defendant's Last Name	Time to Appear
Barnes-Caraway	10:00
Cash-Roberts	10:20
Rutherford-Williams	10:40

5. If an attorney files a general appearance in any case on behalf of an unrepresented defendant prior to the beginning of this session of court, neither counsel nor the defendant will be required to appear in open court.
6. The District Attorney's office will contact defense counsel who represent other defendants who have cases on the calendar to schedule times for them and their clients to appear in open court for the entry of guilty pleas and the hearing of other matters. These cases may be scheduled beginning at 11:00 a.m. on September 21, 2020.
7. In cases where the defendant is incarcerated in the Burke County jail, it is anticipated that the matters involving in custody defendants will be heard utilizing the available video equipment to permit the defendant to participate remotely.
8. Any defendant or attorney who believes that they have been exposed to COVID-19 shall contact Justina Tate at (828) 433-3216, the District Attorney's office or their attorney for further instructions prior to appearing in court.

This the ___ day of September, 2020.

Robert C. Ervin
Senior Resident Superior Court Judge
