CERTIFICATION OF INITIAL DISCLOSURES (SUPPORT)

INSTRUCTIONS: The documents to be provided shall be for the time periods set in Durham County Family Court Domestic Rule 12.2. They shall be provided to the opposing party/counsel and shall NOT be filed with the court. Only this completed Certification shall be filed with the court and a copy provided to the opposing party/counsel.

After the initial disclosures are made, each party has a continuing duty to amend or supplement the original documentation if there has been a substantial change in the form or substance of any of the original information provided.

Documents are considered to be in the custody or control of the party if such documents can be obtained by him or her if the party is a joint title or account holder, or if the documents were prepared by a third party (i.e., CPA, accountant, bookkeeper, etc.) at his or her direction or on his or her behalf whether individually or jointly with another.

1. FEDERAL AND STATE TAX RETURNS: I am the  Plaintiff  Defendant in this action and have served upon the opposing party the last two years of federal and state tax returns, including attachments OR I am the  Plaintiff  Defendant in this action and have not filed tax returns the last two years and therefore have served upon the opposing party the following (check all that apply to your case):
- W-2's for said time periods;
  - 1099's for said time periods;
  - K-1's for said time periods; and/or
  - Any and all underlying income information for said time periods.

If any of the documents required above have not been provided, you must give a detailed explanation of why the documents are not being provided and indicate what good cause exists for not providing the documents as required: _____
