

THE NORTH CAROLINA DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMISSION

Andrew Murray, Commissioner

Andrew Murray was appointed in May 2021, and subsequently elected to a four-year term in November of 2022, as District Attorney for North Carolina's 42nd Prosecutorial District, which includes Henderson, Transylvania, and Polk Counties.

Prior to his serving as District Attorney, Mr. Murray served as the presidentially appointed United States Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina. Mr. Murray was nominated by President Donald Trump on September 11, 2017, and was unanimously confirmed by the United States Senate on November 9, 2017. He served as U.S. Attorney from November 2017 to March 2021.

Prior to becoming the United States Attorney, Mr. Murray served as the elected District Attorney of North Carolina's 26th Prosecutorial District (Mecklenburg County) from January 2010 to November 2017.

Prior to serving as the Mecklenburg District Attorney, Mr. Murray was a criminal law attorney in private practice from 1995 to 2010. Prior to his election as District Attorney, Mr. Murray was the managing partner of the law firm Goodman, Carr, Laughrun, Levine, Murray & Greene for over ten years.

Mr. Murray is also a retired United States Coast Guardsman. He enlisted with the United States Coast Guard in 1980 and completed six years of active service. Upon separation from active duty, he continued to serve as a U.S. Coast Guard Reservist. Mr. Murray attended Coast Guard Officer Candidate School in 1987 and was commissioned as an officer. He retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 2016 as a Captain (O-6) after honorably serving for thirty-five years.

Mr. Murray has been married to his wife Pam Murray for over forty years. They raised three boys together and now have two precious granddaughters.
