

NORTH CAROLINA
HUMAN TRAFFICKING
COMMISSION

LABOR TRAFFICKING

LABOR TRAFFICKING AFFECTS
NORTH CAROLINIANS EVERY YEAR

What is labor trafficking?

The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.

National Human Trafficking Hotline

Call: 1-888-373-7888

Text: BEFREE (233733)

humantraffickinghotline.org

24/7 - Confidential - Toll Free

UNJUST

Industries where trafficking can occur:

- Agriculture
- Domestic work
- Landscaping service
- Construction
- Restaurant / Food service
- Door-to-door sales

UNNOTICED

Signs of labor trafficking

- Appears malnourished or abused
- Unfamiliar with surrounding area
- No control of personal documents
- Untreated injuries / signs of physical abuse
- Little to no pay / long hours
- Living at their place of work
- Made to work to pay off a debt
- Threats to report worker to immigration authorities

UNREPORTED

Do You Know Your Rights?

From discrimination, religious freedom, and gender preferences, to disability and working rights, visit aclu.org/knowyourrights to learn more.

The North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission (HTC)

The North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission is housed in and staffed by the North Carolina Judicial Branch and is the legislatively mandated leader of anti-human trafficking efforts for the state per S.L. 2013-368.

Visit us at htc.nccourts.gov