BIOGRAPHY

Lillie Rhodes

Lillie Rhodes currently serves as Legislative Counsel for the NC Administrative Office of the Courts and as the Director's designee to the Human Trafficking Commission. Lillie began her post-law school career at AOC as a Judicial Fellow after serving as a legislative intern for the Conference of Clerks of Superior Court during college. Prior to re-joining AOC in January 2025, she served as the Director of Government Affairs for the Department of Public Instruction under Superintendent Catherine Truitt and as Legislative Liaison for the NC Community College System.

Lillie is a 2019 graduate of the Honors College at East Carolina University where she served in numerous roles for Phi Mu, VP of Recruitment for the Panhellenic Conference, Student Government, and as Student Body Vice President. She then graduated from Campbell University School of Law in 2022 after serving three years in the Student Bar Association and working for the Campbell Law Career Center. During law school, she interned for the Office of the Lieutenant Governor Dan Forest, the North Carolina Senate, and Walker Kiger, PLLC. She was sworn into the North Carolina State Bar in September 2022.

Outside of work, Lillie continues to be active in Phi Mu as a member of the National Harm Reduction and Prevention Committee and as Membership Advisor for the Lambda Iota chapter at East Carolina. She also serves as a Co-Chair of the Social Committee for the Young Lawyer's Division of the Wake County Bar Association.
