

LEGAL PROFESSIONALISM COMMITTEE AGENDA

Tuesday, December 1, 2015, 10:30 a.m.
North Carolina Judicial Center, Raleigh, NC

- I. Introductions and welcome
- II. Review of minutes from November 3, 2015, meeting
- III. Presentation by Dean Andrew Perlman of Suffolk University School of Law
 - The future of the delivery of legal services in the United States
 - Reimagining the role of lawyers in tomorrow's market for legal services
 - Committee discussion with Dean Perlman
- IV. Presentation by Chair Jaye Meyer and Executive Director Lee Vlahos of the North Carolina Board of Law Examiners
 - Statistical trends related to bar admission in North Carolina
 - The role of character and fitness in bar admissions
 - The emergence of the Uniform Bar Examination and the implications for North Carolina
 - Committee discussion with Mses. Meyer and Vlahos

A working lunch will be served at an appropriate point in the meeting.